MONTHLY REPORT, CONTINUED (Original and 3 carbons)

Report highlights of work accomplished, indicating progress in program for the year; relate successes, gratifying experiences, special problems or needs; and summarize special meetings and activities. If space is insufficient, use plain paper to complete report.

We are in the process of organizing, with help from the Zbigers, Stussi's and Cleworth's, and Mariners (Mariners Club, this ought to be much value in reaching families recently moved here especially from Angoon.

The service here continues to remain challenging with notes of gain in areas of stewardship of time, talent, and money. We enjoy visitors worshipping with us from Yakutat, Hoonah, Angoon, Haines, Douglas, and Auk Bay for this month of January.

THE UNIVERSAL WEEK OF PRAYER was established in London in 1848 by the World's Evangelical Alliance and is widely observed in many countries.

CHURCH ATTENDANCE and the worship of God every Sunday in His church are obligations not only to God, but also to one another. The public worship of the congregation is helped or hindered in the measure in which each of us contributes to the creation of an atmosphere of worship from Sunday to Sunday, surcharged with love and loyalty, devotion and inspiration. Our fellow christians are dependent upon us for this atmosphere, the clergyman is strengthened in his service to the church and the reality of the truth he proclaims, when he has the loyalty of the congregation.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the Protestant Council of the City of New York has approved an expanded one-million-dollar porgram of evangelism, establishment of a Protestant chapel at New York's International Airport, and has announced plans for a Crusade for Church Attendance the first three months of 1958. In addition, representatives of 31 denominations projected establishment of Protestant information centers in Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx.

THE AVERAGE CHRISTIAN is a layman (the term is used to include all church members other than the clergy.) The ratio to the clergy is approximately 300 to 1, and while it is the latter which are usually quoted in the papers and who exercise the greatest influence in ecclesiastical circles, so far as the world is concerned the Church is what the average Christian is.

Laymen therefore carry tremendous responsibility, for in the world at large the influence of the Church depends on the influence of its average member. It is the ordinary Christian who runs the home, does the shopping, teaches school, operates the businesses of our country and engages in the professions.

IN THE ANDONG area of Korea, 53 primary and 22 secondary Bible Clubs have a total enrollment of 7,290. Boys and girls unable to afford an education in regular schools receive a foundation in the 3 R's, as well as in Bible and religious training.

EVANGELICAL MISSIONARIES are not seeking the ill will of the Colombian government or Colombian people. They are only seeking freedom to preach the good news of salvation by simple faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord.

TRADITIONALLY the NEW YEAR has been a time of re-dedication to a new, different, higher and better life in the days that lie ahead. Whatever inspiration has come at the beginning of 1958 for a fresh start will depend upon your desire to put God first in your life.

IN 1958 WILL YOU
Read and use the Bible more,
Observe a quiet time of meditation each day,
Practice christian stewardship,
Try to win someone to Christ,
Pray for our missionaries each day,
Be a witness for Christ,
Attend church regularly,
Prayerfully and earnestly say, "Here am I Lord, use me."

Prayer: O GOD, OUR HEAVENLY FATHER, as we enter upon this new year we commit ourselves to thy care and keeping. Give us the grace to so love Thee with all our heart and soul and mind and strength that we may seek always to do Thy will. Amen.

AN ALASKA TRAVELING SEMINAR, planned to introduce Presbyterians to Alaska and acquaint them with the important work of our church there, is scheduled for June and July. For information write Dr. Merlyn A. Chappel, 156 Fifth Ave., New York 10, N. Y.

THE SESSION OF BANGKOK'S Fourth Thai Church learned that the Synod of Texas was raising funds to buy two station wagons for its work among the Mexican people and sent $50.00 to aid the project. Fourth Church is self-supporting, so this gift represents a contribution directly from Thai christians.

STUDENTS of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church of Korea and Pierson Memorial Bible School report 1,000 decisions for Christ as a result of their work in the new churches.

TODAY to every heart Jesus speaks: "Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men." Are we willing to follow him?

OUR PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH U.S.A. suggests JAPAN as the theme for Church Family nights. The study of Japan provides an opportunity for Christians to see and understand new directions christianity is taking in the Land of the Rising Sun.

THE TAX FREE LIFE INCOME PLAN announced by the Presbyterian Foundation has received nationwide response. Hundreds of inquiries were received from people in 46 states, District of Columbia and Alaska. For information write to Presbyterian Foundation, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York 10, N. Y.

COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS. The National Presbyterian College Scholarships Program of the Presbyterian Church U.S.A. Board of Christian Education, has more than 1,000 applicants for 1958 scholarships taking a screening examination at testing centers throughout the United States.

"Spirit divine, attend our prayer,
And make our hearts thy home;
Descend with all thy gracious power;
Come, Holy Spirit, come."

THE NEED FOR CHRISTIAN MINISTERS

Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? (Romans 10:13-15)

TO THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES falls the task of providing for the Church, sufficient numbers of adequately trained ministers, missionaries and directors of Christian education. Our Presbyterian Church has nine such schools with an enrollment of some 1,500 students. The cost of educating each seminary student is from $900 to $1,300 a year. The students pay part of this and the Churches help through the benevolence budget and individuals assist with added gifts to the seminaries.

The future leadship of the Church is very important. Have you ever stopped to consider how much of your own faith has come through the spoken word of Christian ministers? Christ's Church deserves the finest leadership that can be given it, and the candidates for the ministry must come from your church and churches like yours. Are you willing to follow these candidates with your prayers and with your gifts?

EVANGELISM is the presentation of Jesus Christ, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit men shall come;

- to put their trust in God through Him;
- to accept Him as their Saviour from the guilt and power of sin;
- to serve Him in the fellowship of His Church;
- to follow Him in the vocations of the common life.

DR. C. PRENTISS WARD, a physician of East Orange, N. J. spent his vacation on a missionary project located in a mining region of West Virginia. He checked over 200 children and held a clinic at Clear Creek where he discovered a child with a blood count so low that he would have died in a short time. Alerted by the volunteer mission doctor the mother took the child to a local physician for treatment in time to save its life.

Growing up in a home where one is loved as an individual, precious in the sight of God, is the most hallowed experience of all life.

SHOCKING BUT TRUE

Last year Americans spent three times as much on alcoholic beverages as they contributed to churches, religious agencies and welfare organizations.

THE COLLEGES OF OUR CHURCH look to us for encouragement and for increased financial aid. Give generously to their support as they make Christian higher education available to an ever-increasing number of our youth.

BE A RESPONSIBLE CHURCH MEMBER. The Church is the larger family of God, but the Church's condition depends upon the condition of her members. Christianity has not failed but we have not demonstrated it on a large enough scale in all areas of life. We have not dared to be Christ-like enough.

O thou, by whom we come to God,
The life, the Truth, the Way,
The path of prayer thyself hast trod;
Lord, teach us how to pray!

UNTIL WE REALLY CARE

We will not be truly carrying out the divine commission of our Lord to "go into all the world and make disciples of all people"—doing the work of evangelism that needs to be done—

UNTIL WE REALLY CARE—

—that men and women all around us are lost if they are without Christ
—that nearly half of the children of America have no church school training —that over six million of the fourteen million Americans who are beyond the age of sixty-five, many of them living in the shadow of our churches, have no relationship to the Church —about people as individuals, those we know and those we do not know, but for whom as Christians we have a responsibility —that hundreds of communities in America are without a church despite expansion and building of new churches —that all around our churches in America there are countless people for whom the Church means absolutely nothing —enough to share the good news by words, deeds, service, friendship and love —that "the truth of God" is proclaimed in every corner of our world.

It is essential to the future of the Christian Church that each church member becomes more truly Christian by "really caring" for people, and doing something to share with them the Christian faith. This is God's plan; this is Christ's commission; but others will never come to know God's love, "Until We Really Care."

SIX BOOKS designed to help Young People "gain the kind of successes that matter in life" are currently being featured by the Westminster Book Stores in Philadelphia, Chicago and Los Angeles. The books, MORE POWER TO YOU, BETTER WAYS OF GROWING UP, TEENS TO 21, A TEENAGER'S GUIDE TO PERSONAL SUCCESS, and CAREERS FOR YOU, give the young people the guidance they need to cope with the difficult years of adolesence.

OVER 280 Junior High Camps and more than 180 Senior High conferences were held in 1957 under the auspices of our Presbyterian Church U.S.A. with enrollments that reached a record high attendance.

More than sixty CHURCH OFFICER TRAINING SEMINARS were held in 1957 as a co-operative effort of of the Boards of Christian Education of the United Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterian Church U.S.A. with more than four thousand pastors participating.

DR. RAY J. HARMELINK, Acting Secretary for the Board of Christian Education announced the appointment of Dr. Arnold K. Nakijima and Dr. John E. Cantelon to the Department of Campus Christian Life Division of Higher Education.

FIFTY SCHOLARSHIPS are to be awarded in 1958 to qualified Presbyterian Young People who will enter any one of the the forty-one colleges related to the Presbyterian Church U.S.A. For information write to the Board of Christian Education, Presbyterian Church U.S.A., Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

A MUST ON YOUR READING LIST: "BELIEFS THAT MATTER" by Dr. Ganse Little. This book will be of special value to church leaders and to all who seek to bring the holy "faith of our fathers" into focus with the concerns of daily life. Dr. Ganse Little assures its readers that it does matter very much indeed what we believe.

"Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee."—Psalm 119:11.

LORD I BELIEVE

I BELIEVE that in GOD'S GREAT PLAN for YOUTH, some of His followers are to be teachers, some doctors, some nurses, some Chrisitan business men, some business women, some missionaries, some preachers, some social workers, some directors of christian education, some specialists in religous television and radio, some scientists and some leaders and workers in all the avenues of life.

I BELIEVE that God has a plan for my life and therefore I will pray earnestly that I may do His will.

O LORD,
I would be great—
But not in some spectacular way
For world acclaim.
Beyond my talents
Lie outstanding deeds, perhaps;

But, Lord, I would be great
In faithfulness to each small task
Thou givest me,
To do the best I can
With what I have
For Thy name's sake.

PRAYER: DEAR FATHER, help me to realize that my acts today are parts of the pattern of my life as a whole. Help me to make the most of every opportunity to do good. Help me to be more conscious of the import of my deeds. In Jesus' name. Amen.

CONSTRAINING LOVE

"We love Him, because He first loved us."—1 John 4:19.

THE CORNERSTONE of a hospital in Anchorage, Alaska, has this Bible passage inscribed on it. "The love of Christ constraineth us." This explains why people spend large sums of money to erect institutions of mercy and healing. The Lord Jesus, the Great Physician, in His life, and above all, by His death, demonstrated His great love to us. And motivated by His example we are inspired to love Him in return.

RACE and class problems would vanish if men everywhere resolved by the Spirit's power to let Christ's all-embracing love for the world melt their selfish natures. Interracial problems are solvable, but they will not solve themselves. There is need for a positive program of understanding, cooperation and mutual respect by people of all races.

TO WORSHIPPERS

Will you ask a silent blessing from God our Father upon entering the church and remain a moment in silent prayer after the benediction?

VISUAL AIDS

The Rev. Frederick R. Wilson, evangelist in the area of Tabriz, Iran, was interpreter, chauffeur and assistant for the crew that filmed two motion pictures for the Middle East study scheduled for American and Canadian Protestants for 1958-1959. One film shows the life and work of the Iranian Church; the other, life in the Middle East.

THE NUMBER OF PERSONS 45 to 64 years of age in our churches has tripled in the United States since 1900. The number of those 65 years of age and older has quadrupled. For these age groups the Church must provide a program to fit their interests. These people must be integrated into the total church program.

A PRAYER

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
Fill me with life anew,
That I may love what Thou dost love,
And do what Thou wouldst do. Amen.

REGULAR CHURCH ATTENDANCE will encourage the minister and congregation, and make your example count for Christ.

Jesus said to Simon Peter . . . "Feed my lambs . . . Tend my sheep . . . Feed my sheep." John 21:15-17

AS THE CHIEF SHEPHERD commissioned Peter, so he commissions each one who confesses him as Lord,—even you and me. If our love is more than sentiment we too will be eager to feed the sheep.

"Feed my lambs," said Christ. He put first the lambs, the young ones, those not responsible for their own condition. Literally millions of little lambs today, helpless amid hostile circumstances of life, show marks of hunger, poverty, disease. These must be fed.

"Tend my sheep." Millions live in frustration and confusion because they know not their Saviour. We must guide these sheep to green pastures and to still waters, and bring them, into the fold of everlasting mercy.

"Feed my sheep," Nourish the flock. Feed my sheep who are near about your home; but remember that I have other sheep, in Argentina, Africa, India, Japan, Mexico, Korea, Thailand and in the uttermost parts of the world. These too, the Good Shepherd has entrusted to our care. Regardless of race or color, every human being is precious in the sight of Jesus, as He commissions us:—

"Feed my lambs . . . . . Tend my sheep . . . . . Feed my sheep."

PSALM 23

A Psalm of David.

THE LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
℣2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
℣3 He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
℣4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
℣5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
℣6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

A SERVICE FOR DEDICATION OF HYMNALS

To the Honor and Glory of God in Memory of Helen Johnson gone to the Church Triumphant 3 June 1957. Her career was in nursing, and she served as Tuberculosis Nursing Consultant for the Territory of Alaska 1949 until June 1956. Three years was shared in His Spirit as organist and pianist for Memorial Presbyterian Church.

THE ACT OF DEDICATION

Minister- Unto Thee, O God, eternal and glorious, Trinity, for the purpose of worship.
People- We dedicate these hymnals.
Minister-For the training of choir and congregation in holy song:
People- We dedicate these hymnals.
Minister- For the cultivation and appreciation of great hymns of the Church:
People- We dedicate these hymnals.
Minister- For the ministry of music to comfort and inspire the sorrowing:
People- We dedicate these hymnals.
Minister-For the ministry of music in the glad hours of experience and life:
People- We dedicate these hymnals.
Minister- For the ministry of music on occasions of national rejoicing and sorrow, in memorial, penitential and thanksgiving service:
People- We dedicate these hymnals.
Minister- As a herald of the Gospel of Peace for all mankind:
People- We dedicate these hymnals.
Minister- To the Glory of God, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit:
People- We dedicate these hymnals.

Prayer of Dedication in Unison:

Our Heavenly Father: We bow in reverent spirit seeking Thee to accept and bless these hymnals as expressions of love and as instruments of worship in Thy service.

By their aid, may the ministry of song be a comfort, strength, and inspiration to those who worship in this place of prayer. May they be a medium through which we shall offer unto Thee the praises of our hearts and the aspirations of our souls. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This beloved memorial was made possible by a member of Helen Johnson's immediate family, Mrs. Paul W. Johnson, Rt. Box 8, Clarkston, Washington.

Report highlights of work accomplished, indicating progress in program for the year; relate successes, gratifying experiences, special problems or needs; and summarize special meetings and activities. If space is insufficient, use plain paper to complete report.

The church Every Member Canvass committee is making progress in obtaining membership subscriptions for the annual budget. It seems to be coming in slow and yet steady. A recent survey indicates that we actually have approximately 30 to forty potential givers in terms of subscribing to a budget of $9000.00 This could be done if the above number were all tithers and gave this to the church concerned. At least over forty are of the seasonal workers and are earning only for a period of approximately three months.

THE WORD OF GOD

Word of the ever-living God,
Will of his glorious Son;
Without thee how could earth be trod,
Or heav'n itself be won?

Lord, grant us all aright to learn
The wisdom it imparts;
And to its heav'nly teaching turn,
With simple, childlike hearts.

Bernard Barton, 1826

The Holy Scripture! The glowing Word! The Book of books! To have it and not read it is to sit starving at a feast and refuse to lift a fork. It is to stand freezing before a laid fire and fail to strike the match. It is to grope blindly and neglect to remove the blindfold.

QUICK QUIZ

1. Who was king at Jesus' birth?
2. Who was the King of Giants?
3. In what historic American site are inscribed the Biblical words, "proclaim liberty throughout all the land" (Lev. 25:10)?
4. Is there a Biblical instance of the "dead reviving the dead"?
5. What are called the "synoptic" Gospels, and why?
6. What common saying about giving is attributed to Jesus in the Bible although He is never directly quoted on it?
7. What is the unpardonable sin?
8. What does the Bible say is the root of evil?
9. What book does not once mention God in any way?

ANSWERS

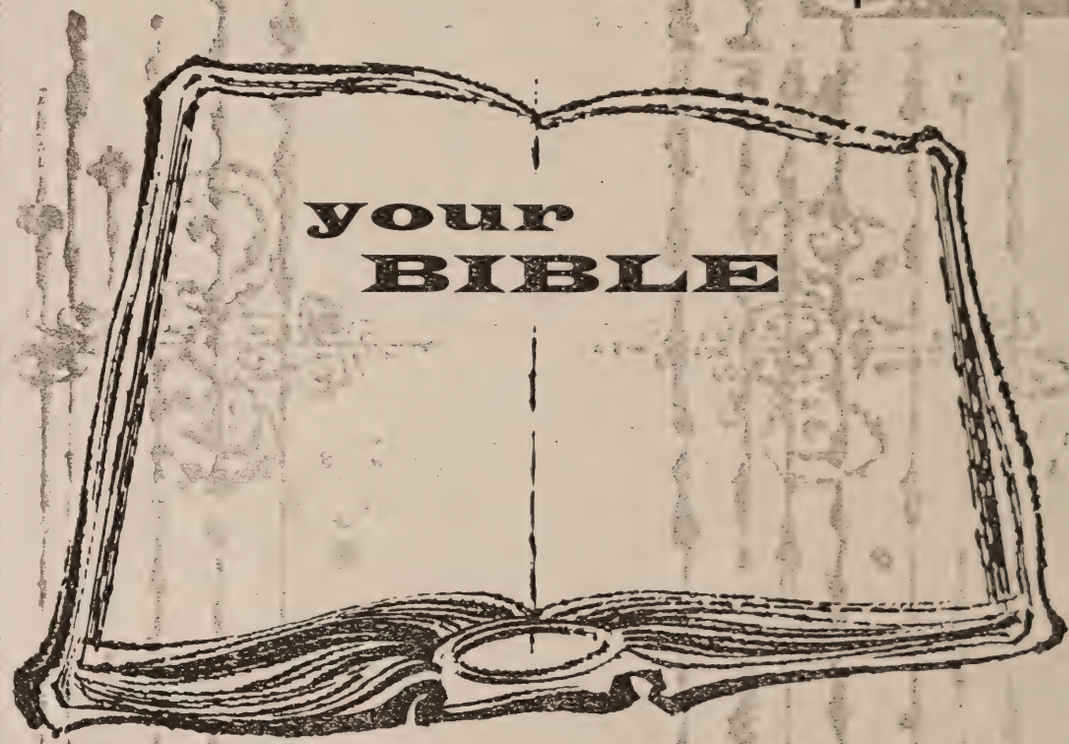
1. Herod the Great
2. Og (Deut. 3:11)
3. Liberty Bell in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, Pa.
4. Yes (II Kings 13:20-21)
5. Books of Matthew, Mark and Luke, because they are written in the same vein, and contain much the same material.
6. It is more blessed to give than to receive. (Acts 20:35)
7. Blasphemy against the Holy Ghost (Matt. 12:31, 32)
8. Love of money (I Timothy 6:10)
9. Esther

Midweek Meditation

Help me so to realize my urgent need for Thy constant guidance, O Heavenly Father, that I regularly read, acutely mark, and inwardly digest, Thy Holy Word as set before me in my open Bible. In Jesus name I pray, Amen.

DOORWAY TO ETERNAL LIFE

APR 16 195
the MIDWEEK
Call-to-Worship



Because the great and sacred volume called the Bible is the only visible evidence of the word of God, it is essential to our eternal lives. Without it we would be lost to sin, and special prayers of thanksgiving should be offered for the invention of the printing press which has placed it within reach of every home and hotel room, every pocket and purse. It is our door to His kingdom.

In America alone, last year, more than 8,000,000 such "doors" were purchased. But a door, unless it is opened, is just another part of a wall. We need to ask ourselves: how often do we open our door to heaven and look inside?

Coming of age

CHURCH BELLS ARE CALLING

- Drums are pulsating through the jungle
- In French Cameroun, West Africa
- To celebrate the coming of age of the Eglise Presbyterienne Camerounaise.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

The 100-year-old American Presbyterian Mission in Cameroun has been dissolved.

"When the Mission is dissolved it does not cease to exist any more than sugar does when it is dissolved in water. It remains to sweeten the water."
—From a sermon by a National Pastor

123 Presbyterian missionaries have become fraternal workers—"brothers who join hands with us."

A new Church of over 100,000 adult believers has been formed to replace the Synod long related to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. It will create policy and administer all the work formerly the responsibility of the Mission.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO US AS AMERICAN PRESBYTERIANS?

We face a greater opportunity than ever for partnership in prayer, fellowship and support with the Presbyterian Church of Cameroun.

WHAT ELSE DOES IT MEAN?

The Church in Cameroun is only one of many mature younger Churches. The Presbyterian Mission has also merged into the Church in Japan, the Philippines, Chile, India, Pakistan, and Thailand. In addition, there are strong independent Churches in Egypt, Ethiopia, Korea, Brazil and Mexico.

Churches all over the world now have a share in the ecumenical mission, "the whole Church in the whole world releasing its whole life in dynamic mission."—From the Message of the Lake Mohonk Consultation in 1956

Ecumenical mission means that we stand together at the threshold of expanding opportunity for evangelism beyond the Church. The idea of ecumenical mission has come of age.

"Now to Him who by the power at work within us is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, to Him be glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever."

A prayer by John Baillie: Almighty and eternal God, Thou art hidden from my sight:
Thou art beyond the understanding of my mind:
Thy thoughts are not as my thoughts:
Thy ways are past finding out. Yet hast Thou breathed Thy Spirit into my life: Yet hast Thou formed my mind to seek Thee: Yet hast Thou inclined my heart to love Thee... in the Master's Name. Amen.

"OH THAT WE HAD MORE LIKE HER," a San Francisco mission pastor said of a relatively new church member. Born in Guatemala, this woman came to this country about four years ago. She quickly found a baby sitting job, and she was soon able to bring to San Francisco the first of the four children she left behind. The daughter came to the church and joined it, then the three boys followed. A young friend from her home country was also brought into the church, and she is shepherding another friend to the services.

THE FIRST CLERGYMAN OF NISEI (second generation Japanese) background to serve in the Navy's chaplain corps is Chaplain Peter I. Ota, U.S.N., who is stationed at the U.S. Naval Center, Bainbridge, Maryland. Chaplain Ota comes from Utah, where his father, the Rev. Tosuke Ota, is pastor of national missions Japanese Church of Christ (Federated) in Salt Lake City.

THE CHURCH has never faced so great an evangelistic opportunity as she does today. The Christian witness finds its essential urgency in the need of ALL men for God and the love of God for every man.

CONVERTS IN THAILAND. At the close of Religious Emphasis Week at Wattana Wittaya Girls' School in Bangkok, 23 students responded to the call to receive Christ as their Saviour.

DEAR LORD and Father of mankind,
"Forgive our feverish ways!
Reclothe us in our rightful mind;
In purer lives thy service find,
In deeper reverence, praise."

TELEVISION AND RADIO are God-given means of communication which should be used extensively by our Church in cooperation with other denominations . . .

To win converts,
To restore the careless,
To instruct in Christian living.
To help people meet personal problems.
To create a better understanding of the church and its ministry.
To strengthen the Christian community and encourage it to accept its local and world tasks.
To cooperate with the broadcasters in their effort to present the best of religious and cultural heritage.

THIS CHURCH exists to exalt Jesus Christ, to promote clean, wholesome living, to serve this community, assist the youth in their climb for character. You are invited to join in this program.

THE CHURCH—LIVING MEMBERS

That through the church the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places. Read—Ephesians 3:1-13.

EVERY AGE has had its list of "Seven Wonders", yet none has included the truly wonderful, the Church. It has always been easy to censure the Church. Looked at merely as an institution, it has merited much of the criticism directed against it; but the Church is more than bricks and mortar, more than vestments, more even than men and movements. It is the body of Christ. In the words of J. A. Moehler: "We are not living members of the external Church until we belong to the interior one. What hath been imparted to us without must be reproduced by and within us."

It is this interior Church which is our chief hope and glory, and toward which we direct our lives. Herein is the body of Christ, and His body is a living body. This Church has a mission to all men, for His love included all men. For the Church to claim its rightful place in the world, for its voice to be heard, the Church calls for people filled with wonder and zeal of men who know what salvation means at first hand. When Christ truly dwells within us, we may be sure that what we impart will be the grace of His Spirit.

LENT AND LOVE

Lent and love are synonomous, for each is self-forgetting, soul searching, sharing.

Opening the portals of faith that Christ may re-capture our lives and love.

Victorious sharing in Christ's love through fellowship in His church.

Enrichment of our total being by recognition of God's greatest gift to man in love; "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son . . ."

John 3:16

"A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another." John 13:34

It is through love in the highest Christian sense that lent comes to have meaning for us in today's world. This is the season when of all the year it becomes compelling to give evidence of our love. As we sing of His sacrifice and pray for His presence our gratitude becomes stronger and our love purer.

Midweek Meditation

Grant, O God, that within Thy courts we may know and share that divine love which only Thou canst bestow upon us, in Jesus' name and for His sake, Amen.

GREATER LOVE HATH NO MAN THAN THIS ▶▶▶

JESUS started down those last 40 days of His life in selfless love for us. Martyrs have followed in His footsteps down through the centuries, making the supreme gift for their beliefs. National heroes have given their lives for ideals and countries. But it was Jesus who showed us the greatest, most selfless gift of all, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." (John 15:13). Not for a belief, not for an ideal, not for a country . . . but for YOU!

MONTHLY REPORT, CONTINUED (Original and 3 carbons)

Report highlights of work accomplished, indicating progress in program for the year; relate successes, gratifying experiences, special problems or needs; and summarize special meetings and activities. If space is insufficient, use plain paper to complete report.

The last of the previous month was spent in travel to an Area Meeting of the S&P at Sacramento, Cal., including a meeting of the Western Area Men's meeting the following week was given to promotional work for the Board of National Missions in the San Francisco area as far as Santa Cruz.

Was called to assist in the idaa of establishing a men's fellowship in the Haines Presbyterian Church 26 March. I left a day earlier for this engagement and conducted a meeting in Klukwan this service was conducted in the Thlinget dialect.

The A.A's. have been coming one by one to our services and are offering help as may be needed to those afflicted with much consumption of liquor.

Under the leadership of Pastor Arthur Johnson, Hoonah Community Presbyterian Church Choir were brought to our church on a true Christian sharing basis by two boat owners, Elder Eli Hanlon and William Johnson. This coming of the choir is a wonderful indication of the manner in which Johnson is taking this rather difficult field.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH U.S.A. IN THE ECUMENICAL MISSION

AREA: Thirty-six countries outside the United States.

AIM: To make the Lord Jesus Christ known to all men as their Divine and only Saviour and to persuade them to become His disciples and responsible members of His church.

RESPONSIBILITY: Every Christian shares the responsibility for the evangelization of the world.

THE NEW DAY IN ECUMENICAL MISSIONS:

Churches in other lands are showing extraordinary maturity in assuming leadership of churches and missionary institutions.

An international missionary outreach in sending fraternal workers to other lands, (e.g. Korea to Thailand, India to Africa, Philippines to Indonesia). More missionaries and fraternal workers than ever before are being requested.

The CHURCH here at home is grasping the breath-taking scope and the urgency of the ecumenical mission.

THE UNIVERSAL DAY OF PRAYER FOR STUDENTS has been held annually since 1897, at the call of the Officers of the World's Student Christian Federation with headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland. Fourteen national student movements in the United States, including the major denominations and YMCA and YWCA participate in the Day of Prayer.

IRANIAN OFFICIALS HONOR RETIRING MEDICAL MISSIONARIES. The governor general of Ghilan Province, Iran, arranged a farewell meeting in the city hall of Resht, provincial capital near the Caspian Sea, to honor Dr. Rolla E. Hoffman and his wife, Dr. Adelaide Kibbe Frame Hoffman, retiring Presbyterian U. S. A. missionaries who worked for many years in the Christian Hospital in Resht.

MISS EVELYN COOKEY, sophomore at our Presbyterian national mission's Warren H. Wilson Junior College in Swannanoa, North Carolina, wrote a letter of thanks for her alma mater, which reads in part: "What would have become of any of us if it were not for the Presbyterian Board of National Missions and the chance you have given us? Perhaps the farm girl would have married a farmer just as poor as her father, the boy with the impaired sight might have ended up making brooms instead of creating beauty with his words, the girl from New Jersey could have looked forward to a future as a factory worker. Yet, we are the teachers, the writers, the social workers of tomorrow. Thank you for giving us the opportunity for the education we need in order to make our contributions to the world—and make them in ways that can really benefit humanity."

NEW CHURCHES IN KOREA. A progress report to the 43rd General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Korea listed 329 new churches in three years. The Assembly's five-year plan calls for the establishment of 500 churches, one for each of South Korea's churchless townships.

SPEAK TO THEM OF CHRIST

Christian Evangelism takes the gospel to all men; it does not avoid any man whatever his class or status.

Lord, speak to me that I may speak
In living echoes of Thy tone;
As Thou hast sought, so let me seek Thy erring children lost and lone.

O teach me, Lord, that I may teach
The precious things Thou dost impart;
And wing my words, that they may reach
The hidden depths of many a heart.

O fill me with Thy fullness Lord,
Until my very heart o'erflow
In kindling thought and glowing word
Thy love to tell, Thy praise to show.

O use me Lord, use even me,
Just as Thou will, and when and where Until Thy blessed face I see,
Thy rest, Thy joy, Thy glory share.

CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP

AS we consider how we may establish spiritual foundations for good citizenship and how we may help to solve the social problems of our day, it is evident that we must start with ourselves. Our worship of God is not genuine if we seek to run away from the true facts about ourselves: our own wickedness and our need for forgiveness and strength to resist evil and do good.

Christian citizens have an obligation to lead in establishing Christ-like standards of living. Without such standards our own lives disintegrate and our society ends in chaos. The basis of good citizenship is the personal integrity and strength of character of the individual citizen. The disciplined and controlled life is the abundant life, and we do it that we may be of real help to others as worthy citizens of the Kingdom of God.

"I am not my body; I am that which uses my body.
I am not my emotions; I am that which controls my emotions.
I am not my thoughts; I am that which directs my thoughts.
I am spirit!
God is spirit, and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and truth.
'Speak to him thou, for he answers,
And spirit with spirit shall meet:
Nearer is he than breathing;
Closer than hands and feet." (Hornell Hart)

Midweek Meditation

Help us not to forget, O God, that Thy will must be done in all phases of our living, not just those little corners of life we keep for Thee, in Jesus name we pray, Amen.

the MIDWEEK Call-to-Worship

DO I WALK WITH HIM?

Do you walk with Him in your daily life, as often as He walks with you? We recognize His presence when we worship in church. Why is it that we do not look for His presence in other phases of our daily living?

Christ was at home with tax collectors and fishermen, as well as with scholars in the temple. Why must we separate our Sunday God from our Monday God? We won't if we walk in His presence all week and return to His house on Sunday.

"Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his."

HE KNEW GOD

Abraham was the father of a nation that came to be the first outstanding people to champion the idea and devotion of one God. He and innumerable prophets and leaders after him separated Hebrews from the heathen who worshipped idols and many gods. The richest heritage of all humanity—of all ages—is the belief in and exclusive devotion to one God. It is a heritage that blesses men, women, youth and children of all ages; the blessing is ours today because Abraham of old, knew God.

Just as Abraham was the father of a nation, so all countries including our own have known men of superior stature whose wisdom, sacrifice, vision, and Godfearing spirit led to triumph.

Let us take this heritage which God has given us and pass it on to our youth that they too may know God, because we know Him through history, and personal experience.

Youth has hopes if we instill them.
Youth has prayer if we pray with and for them.
Youth has stature if we grow in grace with them.
Youth has dreams if we do not bury them.
Youth has the church if we take them to it.

Midweek Meditation

O God, we give Thee thanks for the optimism of youth may it ever keep us young in fellowship with Thee, in the name of eternal Youth, Amen.

the MIDWEEK Call-to-Worship

THE WILL OF GOD

Abraham was ready to do the will of God in sacrificing his son. Are we as willing to make sacrifices to His will? We no longer need prepare as Abraham did because Christ has met that need for all time. But we must remain conscious of the ever present need for recognizing "not my will, but Thine be done."

One sacrifice that we must be willing to make is for the youth of today. Ours must be a readiness to show our youth by example and by Christian living that we are doing God's will to the best of our ability. If we do not meet their need in this way we will lose our youth to false idols that are ready to step in and win their lives.

Don't send them — take them to church with you!

THREE ORDAINED IN SPANISH GUINEA

Three men of Spanish Guinea were ordained as pastors recently at a church service in that country. No signs, bells, or drums can announce a Protestant service in Spanish Guinea, but the singing of the 2,000 participating Christians could be heard for miles around the church. The new pastors are graduates of Dager Biblical Seminary in French Cameroun.

THE FIRST LARGE CHURCH WEDDING in the new building of Trinity Church, on the Navaho Reservation at Chinle, Arizona, was a triracial affair. The bride and groom were Negro teachers from the government school at nearby Many Farms. The ushers, pianist, best man, and all but one of the bride's attendants were Negro. The attendant and the flower girl were Navaho. The twin ring bearers, soloist, the kitchen crew, and the minister were white.

THE PRE-EASTER SEASON has been widely observed as a period of reconstruction, leading up to Easter and its recurrent assurance of immortality. If our hearts respond to this call to greater devotion, to a fresh study of the gospels, to some special Christian service, to sacrificial giving, then will each pre-Easter season be a milestone marking in no unmistakable way our spiritual progress.

FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT of the International Conference on Christian Radio/Television held in Frankfurt, Germany: "It is the mission of the Christian Church, in fulfillment of her Lord's command, to tell the good news of salvation through Jesus Christ to all people. Questions answered were: Why we broadcast; What we hope to accomplish; How should we proceed?

The urgency of the Church's mission requires that every available means be used. Among the newer means of communicating the Gospel, radio and television offer the Church a God-given means by which her voice can be heard by the millions still outside the Christian fellowship.

In his new book, THIS IS AMERICA'S HOUR, Dr. Louis H. Evans writes: "Whenever I visit a university I always go to the science laboratory and, sitting there amid the bottles, test tubes and electronics machines, I question the scientists. Most of them start preaching a sermon, after a short time, on the absolute necessity of our souls catching up with our brains in this material age. Our scientists are more spiritually-minded today than ever before in history."

SCRIPTURES IN BRAILLE

Distribution of Scriptures to blind people has reached an all-time high, reports the American Bible Society. In the United States last year nearly 60,000 Braille volumes and "talking book" records were sent out. Abroad the total was about 9,000.

THE POWER OF THE CROSS

"And I, if I be lifted up from the earth will draw all men unto me." John 12:32

The cross of Jesus lifted Him and still lifts Him against the sky-line of history.

It is still the mandate of His followers to exalt their Master whom the cross first lifted up. There is wisdom in His teaching, a persuasion in His goodness, power in His redemptive love to draw all men unto Him. Jesus still speaks and says "if I be lifted up" in the hearts of all mankind, in the councils of the nations, in the problems of industry, in the Church, in the home, in the schools, "I will draw all men unto me."

Thy cross, O Christ, Thy wondrous love revealing,
Awakes our hearts as with the light of morn;
And pardon o'er our sinful spirits stealing,
Tells us that we, in Thee have been reborn.

PRAYER: OUR FATHER help us to exalt Thy Son, Jesus, in our hearts and minds and wills, that His supremacy may become our salvation. Amen.

The Easter Message

Christ has been made known to the world through his disciples ever since the resurrection morning. The story of the resurrection itself was revealed by those who knew and loved Jesus. When he arose from the tomb, the historians of his day did not record the story. It was the little group of Christians who had known and loved him that gave the message to the world.

"But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices which they had prepared. And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel, and as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, 'Why do you seek the living among the dead? Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of man must be delivered unto the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise.' And they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest."—Luke 24:1-9

Today, the only interpretation of Jesus which the world's many peoples will understand is that which comes from Christian fellowship. The world still looks to those who know him and love him for the message which proclaims the truth of Easter, "Jesus lives." On mission fields everywhere, Christ's followers are telling the Easter story. In Africa, in Asia, in western lands and islands of the seas, Christians are spreading the good news of the risen, living Christ. Demonstrating his way of life, Christians make clear God's revelation of eternal hope for all, through the central fact of Easter—the resurrection.

Report highlights of work accomplished, indicating progress in program for the year; relate successes, gratifying experiences, special problems or needs; and summarize special meetings and activities. If space is insufficient, use plain paper to complete report.

Intensive preparations were made for the Easter Season by conducting a series of classes for members joining on Easter.

Communion was served on Good Friday evening with one of the largest number of members in attendance. The Elders were seated in robes up front and facing the congregation.

The church took active part in the city observance of Good Friday services.

MARTIN LUTHER FILM IN ECUADOR

The United Andean Indian Mission has made available to Protestant groups in the area of Quito, Ecuador, two copies of the Martin Luther film, which has been shown in only a few theaters in South America. The film has been well received.

CAMEROUN CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, Libamba, Makak, French Cameroun, West Africa, proclaims the Gospel of Jesus Christ as revealed in the Bible, the inspired Word of God. Its goal is to train leaders whose lives and witness shall be vitally Christian. Africa is seething with turmoil and unrest; conflicting voices clamor for recognition. The goal of this college is to send its graduates into positions of leadership with Jesus Christ in their hearts, to serve both in secular life and in the Church with a consuming passion to witness to their faith, "workmen who have no need to be ashamed."

THE PURPOSE OF RELIGIOUS BROADCASTING BY TELEVISION AND RADIO is to make Jesus Christ, Christian truth and the Christian way of life known, understood and accepted throughout the world.

A SEEKER IN THAILAND

After seven years in the Buddhist priesthood Sa-ard found a tract about Christianity. Interested, he tried to find out more about it. The first church he went into would not admit him in his yellow priest's robe; in the second church the service was in English, which he could not understand; a third church directed him to a Thai-speaking pastor who welcomed him. That Sunday, to the amazement of the congregation, the yellow-robed priest came into a Bankok church and sat in the front row. After the service he stayed to talk with the pastor. In a short time he left the priesthood, accepted Christ, and was baptized and entered a Bible training school.

HAVE YOU ANY COURAGE TO SPARE?

All of Us Need Inspiration—
We Need Strength, Courage—

Ponder upon the perfect courage of Christ. Think of his temptation. He might have had wealth, position, popularity. Ponder upon the picture of Him standing before Pilate. Enemies, there were, on every side.

"Crucify Him!" the mob cried. A death more cruel could hardly be imagined. Jesus knew what such a death was like. It was the fate of those who were guilty of violent crimes. To be nailed upon a cross, to hang there until life departs, to thirst in vain—

And yet, standing before Pilate He did not wince. "To this end was I born," He said.

All of us need to know more about Jesus of Nazareth. We need to study the source of this great courage. We need such courage.

Savior, Thy dying love,
Thou gavest me,
Nor should I aught withhold
Dear Lord, from Thee:

In love my soul would bow,
My heart fulfill its vow,
Some offering bring Thee Now,
Something for Thee.

Give me a faithful heart,
Guided by Thee,
That each departing day
Henceforth may see

Some work of love begun
Some deed of kindness done,
Some wanderer sought and won,
Something for Thee.

PRAYER

Let thy blessing be upon us, heavenly Father, as we pass through these days in which we remember the sufferings and death of our dear Lord, and grant that His example being ever before us, we may follow in willing obedience, learn His gracious humility, and, being filled with His love and spirit of self-sacrifice, learn the lessons of a life pleasing to Thee and helpful to our fellowmen. We ask through Him who loved us and gave Himself for us, even Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

A CROSS AWAITS

Here, O Christ, our sins we see,
Learn Thy love while gazing thus;
Sin, which laid the cross on Thee
Love, which bore the cross for us.

BIBLE CLUBS IN KOREA

Over 50,000 Korean children are enrolled in 700 Bible Clubs which operate under the direction of Christian churches in South Korea. Pupils receive at least the equivalent of a grade-school education. Many Bible Clubs are on a junior high school level. Thousands of Korean young people who received their only education in Bible Clubs are giving Christian leadership in their Church and country.

RADIO and TELEVISION have given the church an opportunity to convey the Good News of Christ to many people, but are we really grasping the privilege that is open to us?

In his book, EVANGELISM FOR TOMORROW, Dr. Charles B. Templeton says, "While the impress of religion on American Life is broad, it is shallow. The relevance of faith to specific life situations is not always clear. A man's religion tends to be isolated from his daily responsibilities; it does not move easily from pew to market place. . . . All too frequently Christians who readily admit the existence of God deny His Lordship in practice."

AFTER EASTER had gone, the Bible tells us that the disciples became changed men, bold, fearless, loving and true. No task was too great, no journey too far, for the spirit of the first Easter had not gone without leaving some blessing to them. How much of that spirit of the early disciples do we have today? Is there, after this Easter, a change in your life and mine, some new vision, something that shows that Easter did come into our lives and left us with a blessing?

Will we let the coming days reveal what Easter left us? Will we be more loyal and true to the Master and His church, more loving, more gentle than ever before?

IN SPITE OF the upward spiral of figures for church attendance and church membership, there are about 65,000,000 Americans who have no religious affiliation of any kind.

"Young men and women, are you asleep in your faith? Work together for Christ!

—from a young African's sermon in a church in the Belgian Congo.

THE TALE OF TWO STRANGERS

"Did not our hearts burn within us, while He talked with us by the way?"
Luke 24:32

The account of Christ on the Emmaus road is one of the loveliest stories in the world. It is so relevant to our needs that we should hear it gladly.

Cleopas and his fellow-disciple had left Jerusalem with heavy hearts as they returned to Emmaus. As close friends they had talked earnestly about recent happenings. Then came this Stranger, seemingly ignorant of those events of the last few days. In telling Him these things their disappointment could not be concealed: "But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel . . . ."

Now the Stranger speaks. "O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken. . . ." Then, beginning with Moses and continuing through the Scriptures, He leads them in a "Bible study" which centers about the Christ. Their hearts began to respond. They urge Him not to leave: "Abide with us: for it is toward evening . . . ."

As they sat at the evening meal, and the Stranger took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them, the glorious thing happened. The Stranger—it is the Lord! Little wonder their hearts burned within them. Their eyes failed to reveal Him, but their hearts burned!

He who walks with Jesus will feel His power, and his heart will burn in response to the Savior's presence and His love.

If your heart is growing cold to spiritual things, pause and see if you are walking alone. It is His presence which makes the heart burn.

FOURTEEN PROMINENT AMERICANS have established funds for scholarships to be granted by Presbyterian Church-related Macalester College in St. Paul, Minnesota. The funds in mid-November 1957 totaled $134,000. Among the original donors are Bruce Barton, DeWitt Wallace, W. T. Grant and Lowell Thomas.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY in National Parks was given a grant of $50,000 by John D. Rockefeller, Jr. The project is headed by the Rev. Warren W. Ost. Summer ministries are already available in Death Valley, Grand Canyon, Sequoia, Yellowstone, Yosemite, with the Virgin Islands National Park, Devil's Tower, Wyoming, and Devil's Pile, California, being added. People are on the move during the summer and the church must help them find religious growth and experience wherever they can. This ministry will continue to expand across the entire United States as funds are available.

PRESBYTERIAN LIFE, our official church magazine, is coming into your home for only $1.00 per family per year, with the cost included in your church budget, if your church is enrolled in the Every Home Plan. Every Presbyterian should read and enjoy Presbyterian Life. Individual subscriptions are $2.00 per year.

THE FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY of The United Presbyterian Church in the United States, a union of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. and the United Presbyterian Church of North America, will meet in Pittsburgh, Pa., May 28th to June 3rd.

CONSTRUCTION of a $600,000 training center for overseas workers at Stony Point, N. Y., was recently approved by the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church U.S.A. The training center will be constructed on the Gilmor-Sloane property at Stony Point which is owned by the Board of Foreign Missions and is used for missionary residences and conferences. An administration building, three residential halls and a nursery school will be constructed to provide space for training all church personnel, lay and clergy, bound for overseas posts.

WELCOME

That this Church may be a house of prayer for all peoples that love the Lord Christ and desire to learn of Him who is the Way, the Truth and the Life, we bid you welcome to the work and worship of this congregation.

"LORD . . . make us instruments of Thy peace; where there is hatred let us sow love." —Francis of Assisi

"And the hour shall be filled with music,
With songs, and praise, and prayer;
And the burdens of life shall be lifted
From all who enter there."

It is good for us in the general uproar of the world to pass through a season of quiet meditation and put our fingers on our spiritual pulses and see what kind of life we are living. We cannot best estimate our own life in the noise of the street and the turbulence of the world and need to retire within and shut the door that we may see with a quiet eye and balanced judgment what manner of persons we are. The world is too much with us, and late or soon we spend our spiritual substance in worldly ambitions and anxious living. Simply to step into the seclusion and quiet of a church tends to cool our fevered pulses and calm our agitated hearts and give us peace. God is the great need of our souls, and while we should always live in His presence, yet there are times and means for realizing in a special degree his nearness.

AS CHRISTIANS
we believe in our church . . .
– In the ministry it performs so faithfully
– In the hope it gives to the world
– In the Christian foundation which lies at the heart of our nation under God.

From the Composer's Introduction to The Holy City:

> "The First Part of The Holy City was suggested by the passages of Scripture: 'Here we have no continuing city,' and 'Thy kingdom come,' and sets forth the desire for a higher life, as expressed in the words, 'My soul is athirst for God,' which desire is followed by other passages expressive of the perfection of that higher life, such as 'Eye hath not seen.'
> "The Second Part was suggested by the words, 'I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away,' thus realizing the desire and promises contained in the First Part.
> "With the exception of two hymns, a verse from Milton, and three from the Te Deum, the words are entirely scriptural."

ALFRED ROBERT GAUL was born in Norwich, England, April 30, 1837. At the age of nine he was a choir boy under the renowned Dr. Buck at Norwich Cathedral. He studied receiving his degree in music from Cambridge University in 1863. In 1887 he became conductor of the Walsall Philharmonic. Later he was well known as a conductor, as well as a teacher at the Birmingham and Midland Institute. His major works consist largely of religious music: the oratorio Hezekiah, the cantata Ruth, and The Holy City. He died in Birmingham, September 13th, 1913.

PART I

No. 1: Contemplation — Ruth Hartmann, Organist

No. 2: No Shadows Yonder — Chorus with Solo
Joan James, Soprano

No shadows yonder! All light and song!
Each day I wonder, and say, "How long
Shall time me sever from that dear throng?"

No weeping yonder! All fled away!
While here I wander each weary day,
And sigh as I ponder my long, long stay.

No partings yonder! Time and space never Again shall sunder. Hearts cannot sever:
Dearer and fonder hands clasp for ever.

None wanting yonder! Bought by the Lamb,
All gathered under the ever-green palm;
Loud as night's thunder ascends the glad psalm.
(Bonar)

No. 3: My Soul is Athirst for God
Joan James, Soprano

My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God: when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?
My tears have been my meat day and night, while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God?
O bring Thou me out of my trouble.
(Ps.62:2,3; 25:17)

No. 4: At Eventide It Shall Be Light — Trio

Betty Lippincott, Mimi Gregg, Betty McDowell

It shall come to pass, that at eventide it shall be light.

And sorrow and sighing shall be no more.

For the former things have passed away.

(Zech.14:7; Isa.35:10; Rev.21:14)

No. 5: They That Sow in Tears — Chorus

They that sow in tears shall reap in joy: he that now goeth weeping shall come again rejoicing.

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
For God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world, through Him might be saved.
God is love.

(Ps.126:6,7; Jn.3:16,17; I Jn.4:8)

No. 6: Eye Hath Not Seen — Air

Betty McDowell, Contralto

Eye hath not seen, ear hath not heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him.

For He hath prepared for them a city, whose builder and maker is God.

There remaineth, therefore, a rest for the people of God: therefore fear, lest any come short of it.

(I Cor.2:9; Heb.11:10; 4:9,10)

No. 7: For Thee, O Dear, Dear Country — Chorus

For thee, O dear, dear country,
Mine eyes their vigils keep;
For very love, beholding
Thy happy name, they weep.
The mention of Thy glory
Is unction to the breast,
And medicine in sickness,
And love, and life, and rest.

O one, O only mansion!
O paradise of joy!
Where tears are ever banished,
And smiles have no alloy!
The Lamb is all thy splendor,
The Crucified thy praise,
His laud and benediction
Thy ransomed people raise.

With jasper glow thy bulwarks,
Thy streets with emeralds blaze,
The sardius and the topaz
Unite in thee their rays;
Thine ageless walls are bonded
With amethyst unpriced;
The saints build up its fabric,
And the cornerstone is Christ. (Neale)

No. 8: Thine Is the Kingdom — Chorus

Thine is the Kingdom, for ever and ever.

I have looked for Thee, that I might behold Thy power and glory.

(Matt.6:13; Ps.63:3)

PART II

No. 9: Adoration — Organ

No. 10: A New Heaven and a New Earth — Solo and Chorus
Keith Eide, Baritone

Thus saith the Lord: Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former shall not be remembered nor come into mind. But be ye glad and rejoice forever in that which I create: for behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away. And I saw the Holy City, New Jerusalem.
(Isa.65:17,18; Rev.21:1,2)

Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of Hosts!

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, nor any more pain; for the former things are passed away.
(Rev.21:3,4)

Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of Hosts!

I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and His train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphim, and one cried unto another and said,

Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of Hosts!
(Isa.6:1-3)

No. 11a: Let the Heavens Rejoice — Double Chorus

Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad!
Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is!
(Ps.96:11)

No. 11b: To the Lord Our God — Air
Cecilia David, Soprano

To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses. For like as a father pitieth His children, even so is the Lord merciful to them that fear Him.
(Dan.9:9; Ps.103:13)

No. 12a: Come Ye Blessed of My Father — Air
Mimi Gregg, Contralto

Then shall the King say, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.
For it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom. (Matt.25:34; Luke 12:32)

No. 12b: The Fining Pot Is for Silver — Chorus

The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold; but the Lord trieth the hearts. (Pr.17:3)

No. 13: These are They Which Came — Air
Betty Lippincott, Soprano

These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb; therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple.
And they shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and as the stars for ever and ever.
(Rev.7:14,15; Dan.12:3)

No. 14: They Shall Hunger No More — Duet
Betty Lippincott, Betty McDowell

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light upon them, nor any heat. And He that sitteth upon the throne shall dwell among them. (Rev.7:16,15)

No. 15: List! The Cherubic Host — Treble Choir with Solo
Cecilia David, Keith Eide

List! the Cherubic Host in thousand choirs
Touch their immortal harps of golden wires,
With those just spirits who wear victorious palms,
Singing everlastingly devout and holy psalms.
(Milton)

And I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps; and they sang as it were a new song before the throne; and no man could learn that song but they which were redeemed. (Rev.14:2,3)

No. 16: Great and Marvelous Are Thy Works — Chorus

Great and marvelous are Thy works, Lord God Almighty
Just and true are Thy ways, Thou King of Saints!
(Rev.15:3)

To Thee all angels cry aloud, the heavens and all the Powers therein. To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry, Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of Hosts! (Te Deum)

Before the mountains were brought forth or the earth or world were made, Thou art from everlasting.
(Ps.90:2)

Alleluia! Amen!

WORLD CONVENTION ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION. Our quota for the 14th World Convention on Christian Education to be held in Tokyo, Japan, this summer is 43. This convention will bring together over 5,000 persons from 97 countries in an exchange of ideas, inspirations and techniques concerning the church's teaching mission. Information concerning the convention may be obtained from the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education, 1105 Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

DR. JOHN THOMPSON PETERS, Secretary of Stewardship and Promotion in the Presbyterian Church U.S.A., is the new chairman of the Department of Stewardship and Benevolence of the National Council of Churches. Dr. Peters is one of the outstanding stewardship leaders of our times, and the record of his achievement in our Church is well known. Under his leadership the unprecedented increase of 50 per cent in benevolence giving in the Presbyterian Church in a three-year period has probably not been equalled by another Protestant denomination.

A NATIONAL MISSIONS NORTHWEST TRAVELING SEMINAR scheduled for the coming summer will carry those interested in seeing pioneer mission territory over some of the trail blazed by Marcus Whitman, Henry Spalding, and their wives. Points of interest will be the Oregon trail, mission sites, the Nez Perce Indian camp grounds, Grand Coulee Dam and Crater Lake. For complete information write to Dr. Merlyn A. Chappel, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York 10, New York.

STUDENTS at national missions Sheldon Jackson Junior College, Sitka, Alaska, come from 40 towns and villages scattered from the island-studded southeast to Eskimo villages of the Arctic. Started 80 years ago for Thlinget Indians, the 150-student school today includes Eskimos, Aleuts, and whites, as well as Indians of several tribes.

YOUR WILL is the expression of your wishes. In it you reveal those things closest to your heart—your loved ones—and your Church. Write for a free copy of the pamphlet, "Will your Will speak for You"—to the Presbyterian Foundation, 156 Fifth Ave., New York 10, New York.

THREE FIND THE SAVIOUR IN IRAN. Three badly burned men were recently brought in from an Iranian village to the Christian Hospital in Resht. They had taken refuge from flood waters in a room in which there was some gasoline. The gasoline ignited and they were seriously burned on their faces, hands and legs. Their families and friends, dubious about their survival, left them in the hands of the American Christians. Drugs, loving care, treatments and prayer worked miracles. As the men improved they heard from the staff members about Christ, His love for the sick, His power to raise people from the dead. They had had no opportunity to attend school and could not read. They watched with interest lantern pictures of Christ shown after dark in their ward. When the day came for them to be discharged they said, "We know that Jesus Christ saved us, for our people never expected us to return alive. We know that Christ is the Saviour."

THE VALUE OF HUMAN LIFE

"Of how much more value is a man than a sheep!" (Matthew 12:12 RSV)

JESUS stressed the unlimited value of human life. Yet after more than nineteen centuries of Christian history, this lesson has hardly been learned. Reverence for human life is not a primary concern in many nations of the world today.

CHRIST gave HIS life to save every life, everywhere. The cross is the most astonishing example of the value and reverence which Christ has for every human soul. To preserve and save human beings in Christ's name must be the supreme task of every Christian disciple.

Ask yourself this question: "Do I put Christlike evaluation on every human life?"

PRAYER: OUR FATHER we are deeply grateful for Thy love to us. In every human being may we see a person whom Christ loves and for whom He died. Give us a deeper sense of human values. Help us to be Thy true disciples. Amen.

The Good Shepherd

I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

Gaul, "THE HOLY CITY," sung by the Haines Presbyterian Church Choir, of fifty-five voices with Mrs. Ruth Hartmann as accompanist-director. We are delighted to have this choral group visit and share with us in praises unto the Risen Son, Our Lord and Master. The Rev. Mr. Henry Hartmann is pastor of the Haines Presbyterian Church.

Have you ever stopped to think about the different ways in which men have referred to the Bible.... let us say that it is also a great book of music! It starts with a creation prelude, when the morn-stars sang together and all the sons of God joined in great joy unto the magnificent Name. God's music though often very soft, is never stopped. So when we read and study His Word our once broken and out of tune life is brought back into a unit of service and in the heart a great and glorious song begins to stir. The Psalmist sang, " O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.

This Wednesday, 5:30 P.M. our church is to meet around the supper table in Waggoner Hall. The Women's Association is completing plans for the success of this event. Elder Andrew Wanamaker will report on the recent meeting of Presbytery.

Since our Session sensed it inadvisable for our sister church in the city to relocate within the proximity of our church, an objection was sent to the last meeting of Presbytery.... result: Northern Light Presbyterian Church's Session invited us to unite with them making one church in this area. Accordingly committees were set up to study or survey this possibility.

PASTORS PREPARE TO TRAIN CHURCH OFFICERS

More than 68 per cent of all Presbyterian U.S.A. pastors and 53 per cent of all United Presbyterian pastors—or a total of over 4,750 ministers—took part during 1957 in area seminars on church officer training. Held in 65 places throughout the United States and Alaska, the seminars were designed to prepare pastors to conduct training sessions for officers in their own churches. The program will be continued through 1958 and 1959.

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERIAN MEN, composed of lay representatives, is the agency of the General Assembly which endeavors through its organization and activities to reach men, communicate with them, and make them full-time participating members of the church.

LESSON ON PRAYER

An aged illiterate Christian woman in Trenque Lauquen, Argentina, taught missionary Frank Byler a lesson on prayer. "In the morning I ask for food and clothing necessary for the day. During week days I always pray first for the church, the brethren, the sick, and the unsaved, and after that I pray about my work, my food and other material things. On Sunday I don't pray about myself and material things because I dedicate that day to the Lord. On that day I pray for the church and the work of the Lord."

A GROUP of European and American business and professional men in Caracas, Venezuela, asked Alan H. Hamilton, Th.D., Presbyterian U.S.A. educator, to lead them in a study of early Christianity. The majority of the members have been searching for the essence of Christian faith. Dr. Hamilton is principal of Colegio Americano, a Presbyterian mission school which is a major force in the life of the Protestant Church in Caracas.

FREE FOLDER ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

A colorful, illustrated folder, entitled MOVING IN A MOVING WORLD, describing the work of the Presbyterian U.S.A. Board of Christian Education, has been published and is available free of charge from Presbyterian Distribution Service.

THREE NAVAHO GRADUATES of Ganado Mission High School, Ganado, Arizona, won scholarships to Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing. The awards, each worth $750, were given by Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Los Angeles, the 1956 class of the nursing school, and the hospital.

JUNIOR RESIDENT camps under the auspices of the Presbyterian U.S.A. presbyteries and synods increased in number and enrollment last year with 153 camps and more than 16,500 campers and 1,800 counselors. This compares with the previous year when 111 camps reported an enrollment of 9,341.

THE POWER OF PRAYER

JESUS faced his supreme test sustained by the power of constant prayer. Throughout His ministry He had drawn apart to a secret place to commune with His Father. Strengthened by prayer, He set His face steadfastly toward Jerusalem. As He faced the opposition of the Pharisees and Saducees, the tyranny of the High Priest and the judgment of the Governor, the garden of Gethsemane and the Cross, His communion with His Father was so complete that there was a full surrender to the divine will of God.

Let us ask Him again, as did the disciples, "Lord, teach us to pray."

Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,
Unuttered or expressed,
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.

Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye
When none but God is near.

Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

Oh Thou, by whom we come to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way,
The path of prayer Thyself hast trod;
Lord, teach us how to pray. Amen.

MOTHER is the one suitable symbol for the deeper values of life. Few impressions are deeper, last longer, or more definitely affect character than those which a mother creates. The Christian mother knows the need of pointing the way upward, and knows the importance of being a companion and guide to her children. She leads them through the gateway of life into straight paths, making of them righteous citizens, an honor to God and the church.

PRAYER, OUR FATHER, save us from the cheaply sentimental. May we learn that the gift of true devotion to our parents is the gift of a life well-lived.

"IF I HAD A HUNDRED LIVES to live over, I would give them to Sunday School missions," said the Rev. W. Harry Bessire, Missoula, Montana, when he retired recently after nearly thirty-three years as a Sunday School missionary. Mr. Bessire estimates that he has traveled about 700,000 miles "up hill and down in all kinds of weather, some not too good," to visit 60,000 homes. Two of the twelve rural churches he founded now have full-time pastors.

"SOME OF THE STORIES we have listened to and the things we have experienced would make 'true story' and 'whodunit' tales sound insipid," writes Mrs. Mabel Rasmussen from Hospitality House in Fairbanks, Alaska.

Before Hospitality House was started last year to provide temporary housing, training and placement, teenage Eskimo girls who came to Fairbanks were frequently exploited by people who took advantage of their ignorance of city life.

The Board of National Missions recently purchased the Legion Building in which the center is housed. During the summer southern California college students will restyle it for the fast-growing program.

AN INTERRACIAL GROUP of fifty American students headed by the Rev. James H. Robinson of New York will spend two months in Africa this summer. The students, hand-picked from colleges, universities, and high schools across the country, will attend colleges, work on the improvement of college buildings and grounds, live in African homes, and visit industries, farms and educational and religious institutions. Their job will be to learn about Africa and to teach Africans about America. "This is not a safari," Dr. Robinson says, "the trip will be rugged."

FUNDS SOUGHT FOR PROTESTANT PAVILION

Gifts totaling $100,000 are being sought by the U. S. Committee for a Protestant Pavilion at the Brussels World Fair to be held April-October 1958. The project was initiated by a group of Belgian Protestants under the leadership of Pastor Pieter Fagel of Brussels. The modern structure of glass and aluminum, this prefabricated building is to be used as an interdenominational meeting center after the fair is over. Co-chairmen of the U. S. fund drive are Mrs. T. O. Wedel, national president of the United Church Women, and Charles C. Parlin, New York City lawyer.

MOTHER'S DAY is a fitting day to remember the faithful servants of the cross who have served their Christ and His Church through long years. Many have paid a heavy physical price for their devotion. The church has a debt which it must pay to these consecrated servants of God. First to them as individuals, to see that care is provided for them. Second, to preserve and advance the work to which they dedicated their lives. Third, to keep faith with our God who inspired them and who commissioned us to support them that the Kingdom of God might come.

BENEDICTION

The Lord be with us as we walk
Along our homeward road;
In silent thought or friendly talk
Our hearts be near to God.

The Lord be with us as the night
Enfolds our day of rest;
Be He of every heart the Light
Of every home the Guest.

THE MOTHER

She is clothed with strength and dignity,
And she laughs at the days to come.
She opens her mouth in wisdom,
And kindly counsel is on her tongue.
She looks well after her household,
And eats not the bread of idleness,
Her children rise up and bless her—
Her husband also, and praises her:
"Many women have done well,
But you have excelled them all."
Charms are deceptive, and beauty is a breath;
But a woman who reveres the Lord—she will be praised.

OUR HIGH CALLING

in the

JET AGE

THE SIZE OF TOMORROW...

Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.
156 Fifth Avenue, New York 10, New York

•DC•

THE JET AGE*

See that jet plane in the sky!
Or is it so high that you see only the trail of white vapor
...or hear only the sound of jet engines?

The jet plane is a symbol.
It is a symbol of the kind of world in which we live.

We are "jet-propelled"

- into discoveries
  which require tremendous skill to use them well;
- into political situations
  which demand the utmost in statesmanship to direct the nations away from war into peace;

- into social dilemmas
  as millions of people move (farm to city, town to town, state to state);
- into neighborhood difficulties
  because racial and cultural differences are very real;

- into religious confusion
  when money, or sex, or worldly ambition become gods;
- into missionary problems
  for old doors close and new doors open around the earth.

In this jet-age world, the Church lives.

In the Name of Jesus Christ
the Church ministers to people where you live and around the world.
The Church says that what Christ taught,
how He lived,
His death and resurrection—all have meaning for each person on the face of the earth!

* A statement of objectives implementing the recommendation of the 168th General Assembly that beginning in 1958, over a period of five years, there be presented to the churches a program that would more nearly meet the needs of the world's condition.

...THE TASKS

In this jet-age world doing business as usual (even Church business) is not enough.

Here are some areas in which our Presbyterian Church feels a particular sense of responsibility:

- In the heart of America's cities, to keep the Church strong, its Protestant Christian voice firm and clear.
- On college and university campuses,
  to hold Christian young people firm in faith that they may become Christian leaders of the nation's and the world's tomorrow;
- With 20 per cent of the nation's people moving at least once a year, to minister to church members and non-members alike, wherever they are;
- In seminaries, which must be equipped better than ever before in terms of both faculties and facilities,
  to train those whom God calls to church vocations;
- With each church member's life and experience,
  to nurture Christian understanding and spiritual growth;
- In each individual church,
  to see that the program is more effectively planned and adequately supported;
- With other denominations,
  to work unitedly to express Christian solidarity;
- In every land,
  to work with other Christians so that good news in Christ may be experienced by all for whom Christ lived and died and rose again.

...THE CALLING

We believe it is OUR HIGH CALLING to face up to these tasks, and as God gives us strength and insight, to work.

Months of careful study resulted in the creation of a LONG RANGE PROGRAM which goes far beyond what previously our Presbyterian Church has done or planned or hoped.

The program includes:

- a minimum of 75 new churches a year for a decade
- an intensive program of enlistment and training of devoted Christians to serve in these churches
- a plan steadily to increase Church support of our colleges and work on university campuses

- supplying capital funds to missions institutions at home and abroad to modernize and expand our equipment in needy areas
- increases in salaries for mission personnel and provision for cars, jeeps, planes to aid with their transportation

- assistance for both current and capital needs of our seminaries to enable them to improve their total effectiveness
- sharing what we have with churches on 5 continents as God opens doors and calls us to enter
- adjustments in inadequate pensions

THE WAY...

How are we to respond to the needs of the jet age?

How fulfill Our High Calling?

- BY PRAYER for guidance that the Church will be led by God in this critical time

- BY UNDERSTANDING the current and long range program of the Church

- BY RE-EXAMINATION on the part of every church of its local activities and its outreach

- BY COMMITMENT

  ...of every church to improve its local program and to reach the first level of progress suggested by the General Assembly—one dollar for the approved Presbyterian benevolence program for every two dollars spent locally

  ...of every church member to practice Christian tithing as a minimum expression of gratitude for Christ's love

  ...on the part of the whole Church to bring the whole Gospel to the whole world

Prove in practice that the Plan of God for you is good, meets all His demands and moves towards the goal of true maturity.

Romans 12: 2 (Phillips translation)

THE 14th WORLD CONFERENCE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION, to be held in Tokyo, Japan, August 6 to 13, will bring together over 5,000 persons from 97 countries in an exchange of ideas, inspiration, and technique concerning the Church's teaching mission. About 2,500 delegates will be from American churches.

BIBLE IS BEST SELLER AT BRAZILIAN BOOK FAIR

Both Roman Catholic and Protestant bookstores in Porto Alegre, Brazil, made record sales of the Bible at a book fair sponsored by the city council and the state book association. Further proof of returning interest in the Bible in Brazil's state of Rio Grande du Sul is the considerable number of deluxe-edition Bibles, with illustrations by Dore, sold by a commercial bookstore. Second in popularity at the Protestant store was Bunyan's PILGRIM'S PROGRESS. At the stand of the Paulist Brothers, the works of Fulton Sheen were sought after.

THE CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S CENTER on the campus of Yonsei University, Seoul, Korea, has classes for day pupils unable to attend public schools because of their disabilities. This rehabilitation project for children crippled by accidents, polio, and other diseases, is part of the program of Severance Medical Center at Yonsei University.

JAPANESE PIONEERS

For centuries the peoples of Japan—whose island home has a land area smaller than California and a population 9 times as large—have struggled against starvation. As a result, thousands are seeking new homes in less populated countries.

The governments of Brazil and other South American countries with vast areas of undeveloped land are welcoming the Japanese who have long experience in sound farming methods.

More than 20,000 Japanese emigrants have moved from their homeland. The ships carrying these Japanese "pioneers" stop at the port of Wilmington, California, at the rate of one per month.

Church World Service, through the Modesto California center, provides good used clothing, blankets, household linens and special Japanese Pioneer parcels for each man, woman and child on board ship, together with a Japanese New Testament for each adult. Church groups also meet the ship, communicating through the universal language of friendship and offer encouragement to these gallant modern pioneers.

ANY MAN who has a religion is bound to do one of two things with it—change it or spread it. If it isn't true, he must give it up. If it is true, he must give it away.

—Robert E. Speer

GOD IS OUR HOPE
MEDITATION FOR CHRISTIAN FAMILIES

Usually we are filled with hope for the future. Beneath even the routine of everyday life there are deep yearnings that need to be satisfied. Most of the things a family does have a purpose behind them. Ordinarily in some way the power of God is involved in achieving what the family hopes to accomplish. The hope is ours; the fulfillment is His. He is our hope.

Home and hope belong together. There is only one letter's difference in their spelling: three of their four letters are identical. Family life is hope in about that proportion; Christian family life, especially. Most of the deep continuing hopes of the human heart arise and have their fulfillment within family relationships. For realization of their noblest hopes, the Christian family depends upon God.

THE HOPES OF HOME:

To grow and to grow up. God's wisdom and power alone can give growth.

To live—and to live forever. New life begins in families. God through Christ is our assurance of everlasting life.

To love and to be loved. Our knowledge of God rarely, if ever, exceeds our experience of love. The pace and quality of Christian family love is set by God.

GOD is the guarantor of hope for growth, life and love. Hopeful families seek God who is their hope.

"THIS IS THE DAY WHICH THE LORD HATH MADE; WE WILL REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN IT."

Psalms 118:24

Thou art welcome, whosoever thou art that enterest this Church; it is thy Father's house; come in the spirit of reverence; worship in the spirit of humility; and leave it not without a prayer to God for thyself, for those who minister, and for those who worship here.

A NAVAHO TEACHER at our mission in Tuba City, Arizona, tried to explain to a class of Navaho-speaking youngsters that God loves all people everywhere. The children found it hard to understand until she drew this simile. "What color are the sheep your mother has?" she asked. "Brown, and black and white" the children chorused. "Do they look different on the inside when your mother gets them ready to cook?" The children laughed. "No," they said. "Well," the Navaho teacher said, "God has made us look different on the outside too, but on the inside we are the same, and God loves us all."

PENTECOST was the day when the Holy Spirit took possession of a small group of committed people who had given themselves to Christ. This was the birthday of the Christian Church, the beginning of witness for the Church that was in but not of the world.

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE TO CONDUCT CLOTHING CAMPAIGN

A four year campaign to collect 50 million pounds of "used but good" clothing for overseas needy has been approved by Church World Service. Clothing will be obtained by door-to-door drives conducted by local churches of the 35 denominational bodies cooperating with CWS. At least 30 million refugees, disaster victims and others overseas scarcely know the meaning of the word wardrobe.

RECESSIONAL

God of our fathers, known of old
Lord of our far-flung battle line,
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine:
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.
The tumult and the shouting dies,
The captains and the kings depart;
Still stands thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart:
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.

Rudyard Kipling, 1897

"THE GOD who gave us life gave us liberty at the same time."

—Thomas Jefferson

HAPPY is the individual who realized that it is wise to spend some time alone with his God.

"THIS DAY SHALL BE UNTO YOU FOR A MEMORIAL"

EXODUS 12:14

MEMORIAL DAY has been dedicated through the years to remembrance of those who have given their lives in peace and in war that this nation might live.

Drop thy still dews of quietness
Till all our strivings cease;
Take from our souls the strain and stress
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of thy peace.
Breathe through the heats of our desire
Thy coolness and thy balm;
Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
Speak through the earthquake, wind and fire,
O still, small voice of calm.

—John Greenleaf Whittier.

PRAYER, ALMIGHTY GOD, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed; kindle, we pray Thee, in the hearts of all men the true love of peace, and guide with Thy strong and peaceful wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth, that in tranquility Thy Kingdom may go forward, till the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of Thy love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MONTHLY REPORT, CONTINUED (Original and 3 carbons)

Report highlights of work accomplished, indicating progress in program for the year; relate successes, gratifying experiences, special problems or needs; and summarize special meetings and activities. If space is insufficient, use plain paper to complete report.

With good weather coming on and the seasonal work taking several of our families out of the city there is a decrease in most areas of church activities.

A work team composed of Jay Dee Conrad, Arizona State College, Tempe, Arizona, and Louis Haase, University of Dubuque, Dubuque, Iowa, arrived 14 June to assist in our manse re-modeling.

Our church had the honor of entertaining a National Missions Seminar of forty folk visiting our fields of service.

Since the city church groups, as in times past, united in Vacation Church school programming we joined in this city wide effort with various ages meeting in church's of the fellowship.... this year such was not the case hence we went on our own and had a successful school staffed with our membership.

YOUNG PEOPLE in the United Presbyterian N.A. and Presbyterian U.S.A. churches joined forces in the merger of the two denominations. The United Presbyterian Church will include Presbyterian U.S.A. youth in its caravan program for senior high and college groups, and the Presbyterian Church U.S.A. will open its senior high work camps to the United Presbyterian young people. Other summer enterprises by the two churches will be open to the youth of both.

SHARE YOUR BOOK

Readers' Service, an 11 year old agency of the Foreign Board, reports from its headquarters at Stony Point, N.Y., that it needs good books to send overseas to book-hungry missionaries, national pastors and teachers; to hospitals, and to libraries of English- language colleges and seminaries. Especially needed are religious books. Help meet the present shortage. Send your books to Readers' Service, Stony Point, N.Y. or write to the director, Dr. Adin P. Brooks.

PLANS for consolidation of mission work in the United States, Alaska and the West Indies of the Presbyterian Church U.S.A. and the United Presbyterian Church were approved at a joint meeting of both groups.

CHICAGO, described by a national magazine as currently "the most exciting city in the United States," will be the scene of a new National Missions Traveling Seminar schedule from Oct. 17 to 21. In Chicago the Presbyterian church conducts one of its most diversified national missions programs. Cost for the 5 days in Chicago is $85. For complete information write to Dr. Merlyn A. Chappel, 156 5th Ave., New York 10, N.Y.

SERVICES TO OLDER PRESBYTERIAN PERSONS are growing rapidly. Mr. John Park Lee, Executive Secretary reported that 6 more Presbyterian agencies serving aged persons were established last year, bringing the number of such agencies including homes, to 60. Seven more will be established in 1958.

MEMBERSHIP in the United Presbyterian Church U.S.A.—the denomination that will be created by merger of the Presbyterian Church U.S.A. and United Presbyterian N.A. Churches, may top 4½ million by 1970. This will create drastic changes in the theological seminaries associated with the church. A survey revealed that by 1970 these seminaries would have to enroll a minimum of 2,300 students a year or about 1,000 more than in 1956.

A TIME TO PLANT

IN THE BEGINNING GOD created the heaven and the earth.—All things were made by Him and without Him was not anything made that was made,—While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.—A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted.—God giveth the rain upon the earth; and sendeth waters upon the fields.—Your Father which is in heaven . . . maketh His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof; the world and they that dwell therein.—So shall Thy barns be filled.—Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness.—Bible quotations.

O LORD, how good is the earth which Thou hast made, how bountiful Thy provision for food and clothing for all mankind. The goodness of Thy providence extends to all Thy creatures. Thou has permitted us to turn the sod and place the seed in productive soil. We sow and plant in faith. Thou art the source of life, the giver of growth. Look graciously upon us, O Lord, let not our sin and lack of gratitude cause Thee to withhold Thy blessing upon our fields and crops, our flocks and herds and all the fruits of the land. Send seasonable weather, we pray, and grant that in the day of harvest we may with thankful hearts give praise and glory to Thy wonderful name. Amen.

A PRIMARY CONCERN

The Presbyterian Pension Plan is a ministerial fund administered by a Board nominated and elected by the General Assembly.

Two-thirds of the Board are laymen and one-third ministers.

There are over 1500 active lay workers covered by the pension program in addition to ministers. As a matter of fact, there are at present more lay pensioners (lay missionaries and widows) than ministers.

5,000 FAMILIES NOW RECEIVE PENSIONS

Presbyterians have every right to be proud of their pension program. It is a good plan for the future, but it is not yet "old enough" to produce adequate pensions. In reserves and assets it is the largest of the church pension programs in the U.S.A.; but it is not paying the largest pensions for the amounts currently available for pensions must be divided among so many.

Over 5000 family units are now receiving pension benefits and the average pension is still very low. The average pension is approximately $1000 a year for a minister and his wife and only $500 for a widow.

WELFARE PROGRAM OF CHURCH IMPORTANT

No matter how good a pension plan may be, it can never provide adequately for every need. To supplement the plan – which does provide some disability benefits and death benefits as well as a pension – the Church has a welfare program which is administered by the Board. Under this plan, a national fund shares the cost of providing extra amounts in the event of special need or financial distress. About 400 situations arise each year.

The Pension plan remains a primary concern of the whole Church; and through the benevolence budget, each member is sharing in the plan to make appropriate provision as the needs arise. The increasing awareness of these special needs is an indication of our Church's growth in compassion and love for older persons and widows.

POWER THAT IS ALIVE

Some visitors went to see a great cyclotron in a physics department of a university. Here they were aware of a vast concentration of electrical power. They were asked to leave watches outside.

At the edge of the cyclotron was a sign, "Alive! Keep away!" How significant this statement is! Anyone who knows what it means to come into the presence of God knows how this warning applies.

The Spirit of the Living God that often we sing about glibly at times comes in devastating power. He can effect a change in the patterns of our living that is truly revolutionary. His power can work wonders individually and in his worls if we permit it.--Builders, March 29, 1958.

Those desiring to unite with this church are requested to so inform our pastor. New members are to be received on Sunday, June 29th, 11:00 A.M.

Our Vacation Church School for the season ended last Friday. The Church was represented by the following teachers: Dorothy Nelson, Nancy Wilson, Marilyn Wilson, Barbara Landon, Constance Paddock, Betty John and Judy Day. Your Church is grateful for this service.

A BIRTHDAY

A tremendously interesting and stimulating event has just taken place as we have observed the birthday of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. As the Presbyterian Church U.S.A. and the United Presbyterian Church N.A. merged their forces they plan to do many great things together. The witness of this union will literally extend to the ends of the earth.

THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION and the Council on Theological Education in 1957 approved a graduate fellowship program. The plan will provide for tuition and living costs for about 10 Presbyterians in 1958. Full information about the program can be obtained by writing to the Committee on Graduate Fellowships, Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

SYNOD LEADERSHIP SCHOOLS will be conducted this summer in 26 locations for a total of 31 weeks. More than 9,000 persons studied in leadership training schools in the summer of 1957, while the 1958 estimate is over 10,000.

GUIDANCE ON CHILDREN'S DAY CAMPING — a summer activity carried on by more than eighteen of our churches last year—is available in a bulletin published by the Department of Children's Programs in the Board of Christian Education. For information write to the Board of Christian Education, Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES resettled nearly 100,000 refugees in 40 countries since 1952. In 1957, 28,416 refugees were resettled through the efforts of the Council.

SUMMER SUGGESTIONS

Vacation Church Schools for boys and girls. Presbyterian Young People's Summer Conferences for the Youth of our Church. Our most important are our earliest years, and training young people to follow in Christ's footsteps is one of our privileges.

SWEET HOUR OF PRAYER!

Sweet hour of prayer!
That calls me from a world of care,
And bids me at my Father's throne
Make all my wants and wishes known.

WHAT YOU CAN DO FOR CHRIST AND HIS CHURCH

EXTEND a warm welcome to all who come to your Church. Friendship is the ground of Christian Fellowship and is basic to the establishment of strong church ties.

KEEP ON THE LOOKOUT for families moving into your community. Welcome them and bring them to church with you.

SEEK TO WITNESS EACH DAY to at least one person. Use formal contacts through your work and other activities as opportunities to speak of what Christ and His Church mean to you.

PRAY DAILY FOR YOUR CHURCH . . . your pastor, fellow christians. Remember those outside the church and do something about guiding them into the life of the church.

DEMONSTRATE AN ENTHUSIASM about your church and its activities.

REMEMBER YOU ARE A CHRISTIAN when you are playing. Plan wholesome recreation. Show that it is possible to be good and have a good time.

SET A GOOD EXAMPLE to your family, neighbors and friends by attending church regularly.

NEVER LET A WEEK GO BY without spending some time in friendly calling on behalf of your church.

SHOW YOUR CONCERN for a Christian world by supporting church and worthy community projects. Be Christian in your concern for all of God's people.

WIDE WALLS

Give me wide walls to build my House of Life--
The NORTH shall be of LOVE, against the winds of fate;
The SOUTH of TOLERANCE, that I may outreach hate;
The EAST of FAITH, that rises new each day;
The WEST of HOPE, that even dies a glorious way;
The threshold 'neath my feet shall be HUMILITY;
The roof--the very sky itself--INFINITY.
Give me wide walls to build my House of Life.

SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES

The summer program of Westminster Fellowship includes junior high camps, senior high and older youth conferences and service projects for high school and college age young people. Each summer approximately 30,000 young people participate in this program. For information write to Youth Program, 1105 Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

1958 SUMMER TRAINING SCHOOLS

Presbyterian summer training schools (regional and synod) offer courses for all types of local leaders. Regional schools will be held in Santa Fe, New Mexico; and Maryville, Tenn. Synod schools will be conducted in most of the states across our nation.

THE COMMITTEE ON RESETTLEMENT SERVICES of our Presbyterian Church has an interesting report on "9 years of Refugee Resettlement." Reports from churches across the nation state "we are enjoying the most rewarding experience our congregation has ever shared." California has taken more than 650 families, New York State, 600 families, New Jersey, 300 families, Pennsylvania, 246 families and the reports from all our States is encouraging. Not all our refugee stories are happy ones, but over 97% are overwhelmingly successful. The Committee is counting on us to help them again with patience, wisdom and ingenuity as new cases develop and to give someone a "chance of a new life" when the "golden door" opens.

DR. PAUL CALVIN PAYNE, former Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education is the director of the Board's training center at Ghost Ranch, Abiquiu, New Mexico.

IN 1957, the BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION made service loans totaling $78,700 to 449 young men and women preparing to become ministers, directors of Christian education, directors of church music, church social workers, medical missionaries, missionary nurses, or other missionaries.

EVANGELISM—WINNING THE UNCHURCHED—HOW?

1 By knowing who they are in our community.
2 By visiting them in Christian friendship — to make a friend rather than pressurize a prospect—sharing the Christian faith humbly, briefly, clearly, with a view of challenging for commitment to Christ as Saviour and Lord.
3 By introducing them to the worship services of the church.

THIS IS THE HOUSE OF GOD

Enter in silence. Wait in prayer. Worship in reverence. Let all bow in prayer at the beginning of the service and spend the opening moments in meditation.

This prayer is suggested for the guidance of the worshipper: "O God, Thou source of all pure desires and holy affections; give me now a quiet mind and a reverent and responsive heart, that, becoming aware of Thy presence, I may worthily worship Thee."

A CHALLENGE

Every morning lean thine arms awhile
Upon the window-sill of heaven,
And gaze upon thy God,
And with this vision in thine heart turn—
Strong to meet the day.

An early morning quiet time in some woodland lake or mountain retreat, is an inspiring beginning for the day, as our young people gather together each summer for a season of study and inspiration in conferences and camps.

The conferences and camps sponsored by our churches begin each day with God. Leaders endeavor to guide our young people into a personal sense of fellowship with their Creator. In these camps and conferences there is an atmosphere of worship, Bible study, fellowship and recreation. For many of our young people this is a great experience in Christian living.

YOUR CHURCH

When one unites with the church at First and Main Street, or whatever other location in town, he unites with the whole church. He shares in the privilege and responsibility of a world fellowship . . . A believer in Christ by repentance and faith is brought thereby, not into a relationship of selfish individualism but to a Christian community of love and service . . . The Church is where its members worship, live, work, suffer, love — no member must let himself forget that throughout the 24 hours of every day he is the Church . . . The Church moves to conquer the world for Christ by the process of displacement—continually substituting good for evil.

SUMMER FINANCES

Strange as it may seem, a few people think the church does not need money through the summer. For when they leave for their vacations they forget to send in their contributions. Do not let your contributions get behind this year. Resolve that your church shall not be inconvenienced by any negligence on your part.

VACATION

The great Intelligence aptly knew
That there come times to laborers true
That they must hie away and rest
And so He made the mountain crest,
The quiet little fishing nook,
Where work and care would have to look
A long, long time before they'd find
The ones who hid away behind
The drooping birch and scented pine.

THE GOVERNOR OF PUERTO RICO sent a note to a janitor at Inter-American University when he heard that the man was taking night classes in ceramics. The after-hours stint, the governor said in affect, shows extra-mile imagination and effort Puerto Rico needs to work her way up to the living standards of the mainland. When the courses of the mission-sponsored school in San German were opened to employees last year, the janitor was one of the first to sign up.

SEMINARY PROJECTS IN MEXICO

Faculty members of the Southeastern Bible Institute in Xocenpich, Yucatan, Mexico, supervised the construction of a new irrigation tank, a second windmill, a small dairy to provide milk for the Institute, and a small school for wives of students. Newest project of the Institute is a literacy contest, planned to pave the way for the Maya New Testament, which will soon be off the press.

THOUSANDS OF OUR YOUNG PEOPLE are participating this summer in service and study projects, carrying out tasks in behalf of their less fortunate fellow men, studying the deeper concerns and problems of humanity, and seeking further insights into the nature of the Christian community.

Enrolled to take part in community programs, many of these young people will aid in migrant camps, settlement houses, vacation church schools, day camps or similar enterprises. Others will enlist in work camps to contribute physical labor in the construction or renovation of community centers, hospitals, churches and schools.

"From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed; lead me to the rock that is higher than I."

A MAN sat on an ocean beach one summer day gazing at the sea. The surf looked so inviting. He waded in. The waves crashed over him. He went out deeper and deeper. The undertow began to tug. He ignored it. "I can handle this thing." he said to himself. It was soon beyond his control. He struggled and called for help and was rescued and brought back to shore.

In some such manner man looks at life and ventures into places and situations which are too much for him. He forgets the dangerous undertow. But God reminds us of the dangers of venturing too far without His help. He also reminds us that no matter how far we have gone, if we call on Him, He will hear us and see us back.

A group of Presbyterian Tourists numbering 38 and representing eleven states were served dinner by women of our church. Assisting were Mesdames, June Brown, Gertrude Zeiger, Anna May Anderson, Barbara Stussie, Theresa Bell, Mary Brown, Dorothy Nelson, Sophie Peck, Constance Paddock, Norma Johnson; Misses, Myrle Holabird, Helen Dayharsh. These women represented our church very well, thank you!

It has not been too long since our church made news by merging with the United Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, officially the name of our national church is UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A certain pastor mourned over a backslider, who had once been a regular attendant in his congregation. He went to the man's home and found him sitting before an open fire. Without saying a word, the minister took up the tongs, lifted a glowing coal from the fire and laid it aside on the hearthstone. In silence they watched it die out, where upon the backslider exclaimed, "You needn't say a single word, sir; I'll be there next Sunday!"

Report highlights of work accomplished, indicating progress in program for the year; relate successes, gratifying experiences, special problems or needs; and summarize special meetings and activities. If space is insufficient, use plain paper to complete report.

With a work team of two boys mentioned in last month's report we three concentrated on exterior completion of the manse. We worked steadily for five weeks with time for pastoral calling, funerals, radio broadcasts, phoning and answering phone calls, briefly celebrating Congress' acceptance of Alaska to the Union and a very severe earth quake.... thence to top it off I fell from the back roof of the manse, breaking several blood vessels under the right knee. With this we went on our month long vacation to Tenakee, transported on a boat by courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Morgan, MV "North Wind." I have not fully recovered from that fall.

I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE

to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands: One nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE

to the Christian flag, and to the Saviour for whose Kingdom it stands: One brotherhood, uniting all mankind in service and love.

STORMS do not wash away the man-made faces of Rushmore Memorial in the Black Hills, for they are carved in "everlasting granite." Life's vicissitudes do not obliterate the faith of a true Christian, for it is carved deep into character by acts of stewardship.

OUR WORLD challenges us to go, to send, and to give, that the world may know Jesus and Him crucified.

WE HOLD these truths to be self-evident:
That all men are created equal;
That they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights;
That among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness;
That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

—The Declaration of Independence

THE HUMAN SOUL is the world's greatest battlefield. Unless we are able to rule our own spirit, and unless we are able to master our own passions, it is impossible to find relief by running away from where we are.

CHRISTIAN PATRIOTISM means a life that daily demonstrates the highest type of citizenship, a life which helps to supply the moral fibre without which no nation can remain either strong or great. Christian patriotism is sustained by earnest prayer for the nation and for the government. It is founded on the principle that the earth is the Lord's, that He is the God of nations, and that righteousness exalteth the nation.

'The God who gave us life gave us liberty at the same time."

—Thomas Jefferson

TO FOLLOW after the things that make for peace we need courage, tolerance and abiding faith in God.

PRAYER FOR THE NATION

Creator and Ruler of mankind.
We pray Thee this day for our country,
That her new life may be established and built up in Thyself:
That all hatred and malice,
All indifference to the sufferings of others,
All narrow exclusiveness and selfish greed,
May be swept away by the breath of Thy spirit:
And that public spirit, honor, and justice,
Co-operation in service, self-sacrifice for the good of the whole people,
May flourish abundantly amongst us.
We pray Thee
That Thou wilt forge us into tools meet for the service of our country:
Burn from us all selfishness and pride:
Purify us from all baseness:
Fill us with Thy divine passion
To uplift the weak,
To sweep away oppression and wrong,
To give to every man
The opportunity of a full life
That may be lived to Thy glory and to the service of mankind.

Abraham Lincoln

OUR COUNTRY'S GREAT LEADERS down through the years have shared a sure belief in God . . . in themselves . . . in their fellow men . . . and in freedom! In crisis and in peace they have placed their faith in God's wisdom . . . and in their own ability to work out their problems . . . and in the great justice of a free people.

Let us do the same today.

CHRISTIAN SUMMER VACATION PLANS do not ignore the soul's interests. They do not lightly wave aside the church and the worship of God. They are a test of loyalty to God in his work.

MIGRANTS

The plight of boys and girls who are constantly on the go, from south to north and back again, as their parents pick America's crops, is especially moving to other more fortunate boys and girls. As well-housed, well-cared-for children learn about the boys and girls of migrant families and how they must live, they wish to bring some of the advantages they enjoy to these uprooted children. Groups of children in some churches collect pennies to provide a fund for projects that will bring a message of warmth and friendliness to the children of the migrants.

PEOPLE on vacation visiting many of our National Parks will find opportunities for Sunday worship services and for daily devotional services as well.

STRANGERS AND VISITORS

We heartily welcome you to our service and extend to you our church fellowship. If you are not connected with another congregation, we invite you to unite with us in worship and work.

EVANGELISM ACCORDING TO THE FRENCH

Abbe Michonneau of the Mission de Paris states: "We need real militants who will fill their surroundings with the Spirit of Christ so that men and women will want to follow this Christ. We are not interested in gaining recruits for our church services; but we are passionately interested in gaining recruits for Christ. Every man has his little world to influence, to change, to Christianize."

WHERE cross the crowded ways of life,
There sound the cries of race and clan,
Above the noise of selfish strife,
We hear Thy voice O Son of Man.
The cup of water given for Thee
Still holds the freshness of Thy grace;
Yet long these multitudes to see
The sweet compassion of Thy face.

EACH BROUGHT HIS GIFT

AMERICA is a land of but one people, gathered from many countries. Some came for love of money and some for love of freedom. Whatever the lure that brought us, each has his gift. Irish lad and Scot, Teuton, Norse, Negro—all have come bearing gifts and have laid them on the Altar of America. . . .

Hatred of old-time neighbors, national prejudices and ambitions, traditional fears, set standards of living, graceless intolerance, class rights and demand of class—these were barred at the gates.

At the Altar of America we have sworn ourselves to a single loyalty. We have bound ourselves to sacrifice and struggle, to plan to work for this land. We have given that we may gain, we have surrendered that we may have a victory. We have taken an oath that the world shall have a chance to know how much of good may be gathered from all countries and how solid in its strength, how wise, how fertile in its yield, how lasting and sure is the life of a people who are one.

—Frank K. Lane

PRAYER

O eternal God, through Whose mighty power our fathers won their liberties of old; Grant, we beseech Thee, that we and all the people of this land may have grace to maintain these liberties in righteousness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Our beloved church had its birthday yesterday, 12 July 1887, now in the 71st year. This work was started in His Spirit by missionaries, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Willard, to be followed by Livingstone F. Jones, Verne J. Swanson, David Waggoner and presently your Pastor, Walter A. Soboleff.

True Christian Discipleship

If I feel I know the will of Christ, and yet if my life has not been transformed into a new creature by the power of his indwelling presence, I am not his disciple.

If I say I follow Christ, but if I have not the mind or the compassionate love of Christ, my discipleship is a hollow thing of mockery.

If I seem to know all the answers, and if I repeat them solemnly, word by word, in psalm and prayer, but have failed to see that this, my church, is my greatest channel for loving and redemptive service, then my discipleship is a superficial thing.

And if I can look politely and callously out upon the decay of modern civilization, with its heartache and confusion, needing life, and bread and light, and yet say, "Who cares?" then indeed I lack the burning heart of a disciple.

My discipleship will make me look humbly into the face of God, and there I will see a love I have not yet known.

SUMMER THOUGHTS

"Nature is the living, visible garment of God."

—Goethe

"Earth's crammed with heaven
And every common bush afire with God,
But only he who sees takes off his shoes."

—Elizabeth Browning

"Most of the shadows of this life are caused by standing in our own sunshine.'

—Emerson

There is a world within and this is the greater world. If you want a really lovely world without, you must make the world within bright and lovely.

—David Gregg

WESTMINSTER HOSPITAL in Kermanshah, Iran, has ministered to the medical needs of the people in Kermanshah Province for forty years presenting the Gospel through word of mouth, pictures projected on the walls, and through Christian literature. One patient who accepted Christ as his Savior during recent months had a foot amputated because of a disease of the blood vessels. Following his long stay in the hospital he returned to his home village to tell his neighbors about the new joy in his heart. Though he cannot read, he can tell the story of Christ.

THE AMERICAN PROTESTANT is digging deeper and deeper into his pocket to support his church. It can be said very definitely that the American Protestant is much more generous to his church than he used to be.

"REMEMBER THE CHURCH IN YOUR WILL" is a theme being proclaimed throughout American Protestantism today. A groundswell of interest in a hitherto neglected aspect of Christian Stewardship has produced in communion after communion special committees to prepare materials, and carry out this new emphasis. The interest has taken shape in many ways, in new executives, in films and brochures, in conferences and in personal contacts.

KOREAN ELDER BUILDS CHURCH FOR FACTORY

As an industrialist, Kim Hyung Nam of South Korea is probably unique. On the fenced-in compound of his textile mill at Kwang Ju stands a large church. Mr. Kim contributed heavily toward its construction. On Sundays, the factory is closed to enable 1,000 workers and their families as well as Mr. Kim to attend worship services and Bible-study sessions. Despite the fact that few other Korean factories shut down on Sundays the Kim textile mill has one of the nation's highest production rates.

WELCOME

We welcome you to our Church; trusting that if you are seeking Christ, you will find Him here; if sorrowing you will receive comfort; if troubled in spirit you will gain the blessings of peace; if discouraged you will rejoice in hope; if friendless you will find companionship and Christian love. That these and other blessings may be your portion is our prayer.

MY WINDOWS

I love my window facing East,
Whence comes the miracle of day
"Let there be light" and all the gray
Of trailing mists is swept away.
My cypress tree—black vestured priest,
Lifts holy hands to praise and pray.

I love my window facing South!
The upland waves, a golden sea,
And billows with its mystery
Of ripening grain and fruiting tree.
Enough for every hungry mouth,
Awaits the harvest jubilee.

I love my window facing West!
I see an Artist spread His paint,
With glory lave the firmament.
The voices of the day grow faint,
The voices of the day grow faint,
And folds us in her arms' restraint.

I have another window where
I catch the gleaming of the star
Which guides the sailor, who afar,
Has lost his course through rocks and bar
And here I bow in evening prayer—
Be Thou, O Christ, My Polar Star

Light, Warmth and Nourishment

She picked a flower from the window box that stood near the door and examined it. It was a petunia that earlier in the day had been a wide star of deep purple but now was folded in upon itself, its petals furled.

"If you wanted to make this flower open," she said, "there would be two ways. You could force its petals apart. But if you did that too hard you'd tear it. The other way would be like this," She held the flower in the doorway. "If it was in the sunlight long enough, it would open by itself."

"All right, so what?"

"It's like that with healing--don't you see? If you force your will upon it too hard, you tear it down. But if you provide the right kind of light and warmth and nourishment, you can bring about the healing of its own accord."

NATURE IS INSTRUCTIVE

It teaches us the beauty, harmony, and adaptation of life all about us. Christ saw the seed, the corn, the fruit, the flowers and they all bore lessons of life's higher values.

"There is nothing above, below
From flowers that bloom to stars that glow
But in its light my soul can see
Some feature of the Diety."

MORE PERFECT WORLD

That summer conferences send the delegates back to their homes "convinced that the more perfect world will come as the result of the more perfect Christian personality," is the opinion of the young people who attend the summer conferences.

HOW MANY mountains will you pass this summer as you go from place to place seeking vacation rest? Exalting as mountains are when viewed from the valley, they are a thousand times more inspiring when you stand aloft on their solitary pinnacles and look down upon the earth below. But there is no use "wishing" your way to the top; you have to climb. This also applies to overcoming the obstacles of each day. To him that overcomes—victory!

I AM NOT STRONG till Thou hast clasped my hand,
I am not fit till by Thy side I stand.
I am not brave till Thou has come to me;
Till Thou hast bound me fast, I am not free.

CHAPEL IN PAKISTAN SERVES THREE CONGREGATIONS

The new chapel on the campus of Forman Christian College, Lahore, West Pakistan, has regular services in three languages. The English-speaking college community church attracts many foreign visitors. The Urdu-speaking congregation, organized under the Lahore Church Council of the United Church in Pakistan, is hoping to have its own pastor. The chapel's third congregation is a small one of German-speaking residents of Lahore.

THE SEAL catch at Wainwright, Alaska, was exceptionally good and the Rev. Roy Ahmaogak, pastor of the mission church in the Arctic Eskimo village suggested the men give seals as a thank offering to the Lord. A paper was posted where each hunter could write his name and number of seals he wished to give. On a specified date the men brought in the seals, which were placed in the deacons' ice cellar. When winter came and food supplies dwindled, the animals were sold and food was bought for needy families.

THE DISCIPLINE of an early morning time apart in His presence is a necessary part of every true disciple's life. We cannot ignore this pattern if we really want to follow Him.

OH THOU, by whom we come to God,
The life, the Truth, the Way,
The path of prayer thyself hast trod;
Lord, teach us how to pray!

LET US be energetic for Christ and the Kingdom.

THIS IS MY FATHER'S WORLD

THE STORY of the creation as recorded in Genesis concludes with these words, "And God saw everything that He had made, and behold it was good." Striking evidences of that goodness are to be seen on every hand. Flying across the country in midsummer we get a panoramic view of the land, its beauty and abundance. Forests, lakes, rivers, clear mountain streams, mountain peaks, alternating with meadows and fields rich in grain.

This is my Father's world,
And to my listening ear,
All nature sings and round me rings
The music of the spheres.

This is my Father's world,
I rest me in the thought
Of rocks and trees, of skies and seas;
His hand the wonders wrought.

This is my Father's world
The birds their carols raise,
The morning light, the lily white
Declare their Maker's praise.

This is my Father's world,
He shines in all that's fair
In the rustling grass I hear Him pass
He speaks to me everywhere.

STRANGERS AND SOJOURNERS

Two million strong, the harvest caravans move northward each year, picking and packing the ripening fruits and vegetables that appear on our dining tables. In old jalopies, in trailers, in trucks, their babies and children and their few possessions with them, they fan out over the three main migrant routes, stopping to garner a crop. Then, their services no longer wanted, they move on, anxiously hoping to pick another, following the seasons as they go.

The churches were concerned about the plight of the migrants and each year the interest and concern for them has continued to grow. In the Migrant Ministry the churches are united to serve the men, women and children who are following the crops, by providing Health and Welfare Services, Specialized education, housing, recreation, church services, religious classes, church schools and in every possible way try to help the Migrant.

ARAB PROTESTANTS OF BAGHDAD

The active congregation of the Arab Protestant Church in Baghdad, Iraq, has extended its hospitality to the foreign Protestant community, and on Sunday evenings English-speaking Protestants worship in its sanctuary. The church's pastor the Rev. Halim Towfik Jaed, attracts people to the church and to Christ through his gentle, yet compelling, ministry.

YEAR FOR WOMEN

In Japan where the church is concluding its second year of a special five year program of evangelism, fifty-nine pioneer churches have been opened and industrial evangelism is being tried. 1957 was designated as the special year for evangelism of women.

MAKING LIFE WORTH WHILE

May every soul that touches mine—
Be it the slightest contact—
Get therefrom some good;
Some little grace; one kindly thought;
One aspiration yet unfelt;
One bit of courage
For the darkening sky;
One gleam of faith
To brave the thickening ills of life;
One glimpse of brighter skies
Beyond the gathering mists—
To make this life worth while
And heaven a surer heritage.

—George Eliot

REGULAR CHURCH ATTENDANCE will encourage the minister and congregation and make your example count for Christ.

PRAYER

LORD, keep us mindful of all the blessings we receive from Thee and help us to be satisfied with them. Receive our humble thanks for thy mercy. Amen.

O LORD of heaven and earth and sea
To Thee all praise and glory be!
How shall we show our love to Thee
Who givest all?

The golden sunshine, vernal air
Sweet flowers and fruit Thy love declare
When harvests ripen Thou art there,
Who givest all.

For peaceful homes, and healthful days,
For all the blessings earth displays,
We owe Thee thankfulness and praise,
Who giveth all.

The Greatest Thing in Christianity

What is the greatest thing in Christianity? Is it the fact that Jesus is the greatest teacher that ever lived, greater than Moses, than Plato and Emerson?

Does Christianity's supremacy lie in its being the sovereign religion of the world, greater than Buddhism, than the Greek, Roman, and Teutonic religions, and in that it seems destined to have universal sway?

The greatest thing in Christianity is this; there is One who was dead but is alive forevermore; and a man may have Him for his friend and companion; living in Him as a regenerating, purifying man-building power; chiding and restraining him; comforting and inspiring him; giving him the life that is from above; making him strong to suffer and to do; and gradually transforming him into His own likeness; and thus dwelling with men and in them He becomes the source and cause of all that marvellous movement which we call Christian civilization.

Jesus said, "I am come that they might have life." Out of that life have grown religion, philanthropy, science; and out of it have come discoveries and inventions, giving new freedom and new power to the world.

Rev. George D. Black, D.D.
Yellow Springs, Ohio

The Children of God...

Who are the children of God?

The children of the "untouchables" of India—born in homes darkened by ignorance and fettered by superstition—

these are the children of God.

The children of the thatched huts of the jungleland of Africa, acquainted with hunger and denied the future by untrained minds and diseased bodies—

these are the children of God.

The children who live in the remote mountain areas of the Philippines, inaccessible to travel except by primitive foot trails and rapid river currents, eager to learn but without schools or books—

these are the children of God.

The children of Jamaica, living in one of the most beautiful islands in the whole world—but experiencing little beauty in life. Extreme poverty, illiteracy, and with but little opportunity to improve their economic or social status—

these are the children of God.

The children of Puerto Rico where Sunday schools and churches are filled to the "bursting" point and where congregations are zealous in the practice of stewardship and evangelism, eager-eyed and keen-minded youth fired with ambition but facing social and economic problems inherent to a land over populated (population density of Puerto Rico 643 per sq. mile as compared with 58 per sq. mile in U. S.)—

these are the children of God.

The children of Mexico, where for centuries the state religion has been one of fear and superstition content to become rich in buildings and lands and powerful in political office, while the people lived in ignorance and poverty—

these are the children of God.

To these children of God—and to others in other lands—it is the holy task of the church to take Christ! Schools to train for leadership—hospitals and clinics to heal the sick bodies—churches and Sunday schools to teach the Gospel and give opportunities for worship and service and love—

This is the World Mission of the church.

11:00 A.M. Divine Worship.

The Women's Association members are invited to meet with the Northern Light Women's Association Wednesday, September 3rd at 8 P.M. in the Northern Light Church parlors. There will be reports from the Purdue meeting by Mrs. Sweet, Miss Ethel Murphy and Miss Isabel Miller.

Christians, Awake!

A Protestant Church in a down town city section, sold out to an active communistic group. This group remodeled the church and began holding meetings of their own there on Sunday mornings from 9 a.m. to noon.

When the meetings were over, each member took a package of literature to distribute during the week. One of the communists said, "I admit you have in the gospel of Christ a more powerful weapon than we have, but we can beat you in the end." He continued by saying, "We mean business; we give all our money above expenses, and all of our spare time over our working and rest time . . . You give only a small fragment of your time and very little of your money for the propagation of the Gospel of Christ. What is the good of your Gospel if you do not practice it, propagate it, sacrifice for it?"

NATIONAL MISSIONS

God's straight line of life and love, like all lines goes some place. It first went to Bethlehem . . . from the beginning, this line has cut across all natural and national barriers; it has been a straight line to all nations.

It is also to this nation—its cluster of 48 states, its Alaska and Puerto Rico—and to Cuba and the Dominican Republic—to 50 language and dialect groups, to cowboys, migrants, to pastures and meadows, hills where tomorrow subdivisions of new housing will erupt, to inner city areas, to people in need wherever our neighborliness can find them. There is no place on earth that can blunt the straight line of God's life and love when we give it the dimension of direction. A missionary in a ski-shod plane can bring the line down into the icy crevasses of Artic passes; a New Mexico nurse can dole out shots and vitamins in tiny old-world-like Spanish American plazas; a Cuban pastor can spark a literacy campaign. Wherever there is need, the line finds its mark.

Quote from Dr. Raymond I. Lindquist pastor, First Presbyterian Church of Hollywood, Calif., President of the Board of National Missions, Presbyterian Church U.S.A.

LORD BE THANKED for these dear gifts: Hearts that care and love that lifts; for beauty and beholding eyes, seashore and hills and starlit skies; the Voice revealing God's intent when night comes down and hope is spent; The Father's House to take us in from all our wanderings and sin; The Church with glowing Altar fires to waken dreams and high desires. Amen.

Mitchell S. Epperson

PRESBYTERIAN NATIONAL MISSION ITEMS:

Four new buildings were dedicated recently at Warren H. Wilson Junior College, Presbyterian Mission School in Swannanoa, N. C., with interracial, international enrollment of about 240 students.

Eskimo families of the Presbyterian Church in Savoonga, a small village in the Bering Strait, are taking weekly turns at church cleaning. No family, national missionary Louise Avery reports "has flubbed its turn."

There are more than 2700 Presbyterian national missionaries who work in cities, towns and open country, on Indian reservations and in new communities in the United States, Alaska and the West Indies.

Women and girls in Paraiso Obrero, a section of Cabaiguan Cuba now sew and iron together in the Edith M. Houston Memorial Community Home, furnished by Cuba Presbyterial in memory of the American missionary.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH at Ganado, Arizona, on the Navaho Reservation reaches out to 12,000 in a 3,000 square-mile parish through gospel teams from the mission school, Christian education in after-school classes of ten government schools, camp meetings, and Indian lay evangelists.

THE 1956-57 mission study, "MISSION FIELD: U. S. A." awakens to us a new awareness of the nation's need and the urgent necessity for the Church to marshal its forces for the task in atomic-age America.

THE GOSPEL

"GO . . . AND PREACH THE GOSPEL TO THE WHOLE CREATION" Mark 16:15

We have the missionary obligation and privilege, the missionary call and commission and the missionary program. Those that go forth must be supported and must have tools with which to work. Most of us have not been commissioned to GO, but to send, and sending means the giving of financial aid, our personal interest and our prayers. There is seldom a lack of real consecrated and able missionaries, but there is constantly a lack of adequate missionary interest and giving. If we cannot go in person, it is our duty and our privilege to send someone to represent us.

Send thou, O Lord, to every place,
Swift messengers before thy face,
The heralds of thy wondrous grace,
Where thou thyself, wilt come.

Send men whose eyes have seen the King,
Men in whose ears his sweet words ring,
Send such thy lost ones home to bring,
Send them where thou wilt come.

Report highlights of work accomplished, indicating progress in program for the year; relate successes, gratifying experiences, special problems or needs; and summarize special meetings and activities. If space is insufficient, use plain paper to complete report.

With the near end of vacation periods, fishing (commercial) church activity will be on the increase. In conversation with several of the folk engaged in fishing I learn that the [redacted] season was not too profitable. At this writing I have made referrals to the welfare offices for needy families.

As never before the officers are busily engaged in examining our financial structure and making necessary adjustments; planning for the pending mission services with Dr. Harry F. Mercer, speaker, coming from Northside Presbyterian Church, Chattahooga, Tenn.

Our committee on church study has been strengthened by a shift in members and is now being better informed an what to know in the event of church merger with the Northern Light Presbyterian group.

THE LIGHT COMETH

Christ, whose glory fills the skies,
Christ, the true, the only Light,
Sun of Righteousness, arise!
Triumph o'er the shades of night.

Dark and cheerless is the morn
Unaccompanied by thee;
Joyless is the day's return,
Till thy mercy's beams I see.

Visit then this soul of mine!
Pierce the gloom of sin and grief!
Fill me, radiancy divine;
Scatter all my unbelief.

Charles Wesley, 1740

FROM the first chapter of Genesis to the last chapter of the Revelation, allusions to light in regard to God and man are frequent. These references, many made by Jesus Himself, tell us that Light is one of the best descriptive terms we can find for the Son of God; for light is as unique as it is necessary to life. We can't create nor duplicate it, nor can we duplicate the Light of the World.

Beamed through a prism, light gives us colors we can reproduce. Examined through the Bible, Jesus' life and teachings show us the colors of love, truth, wisdom, power, and all the other hues that belong to God but which we can strive to attain. Without light there is no color. Without God there is no good.

Even with God's grace, we fall far short in our efforts to develop our own God-like qualities. But we must try, for "be thou perfect," Jesus admonished. Now, as we are preparing for the coming of the Light, is an excellent time to rededicate ourselves to this task. Our Christmases, our whole lives, will be much the richer for it.

Midweek Meditation

Holy Father, who sent Thy blinding Light unto the sinner, Saul of Tarsus, send it likewise unto me; that, in its radiant glory, I may be blind to the temptations of the world, and seek only to serve Thee, like thy faithful servant, Paul. Amen.

Six things are requisite to create a "happy home". Integrity must be the architect, and tidiness the upholsterer. It must be warmed by affection, lighted up with cheerfulness; and industry must be the ventilator, renewing the atmosphere and bringing in fresh salubrity day by day; while over all, as a protecting canopy and glory, nothing will suffice except the blessing of God.

"My Father is working... and I am working"

God works. Through Christ He redeemed the world. Christ worked. He proclaimed to us the news of our redemption.

And we who are the Church of Christ work also — to make known God's redemptive act and to bring the good news of it to bear upon the united lives of Christians in the Church, upon the daily lives of individual Christians, and upon the society in which Christians live.

Each of us in the Church has a sacred vocation. All of us are equal: all are called to work for the Kingdom of God.

This year's observance of Christian Education Sunday and Christian Education Week salutes every "Christian worker and his calling." But it particularly recognizes those engaged in the Church's teaching mission—parents, members of church school staffs, leaders of youth and adults . . . an almost endless list of people.

Committed to Christ, these workers likewise are committed to service in his church. Maturing in the Christian faith, they guide others toward maturity in that faith. Talented and skilled in their teaching tasks, they nevertheless continue as learners.

Through these workers, the Church publishes to young and old the good news that they have been redeemed. Thus young and old are freed to honor, love, and serve their fellow human beings because they themselves have been honored, loved, and served by God in Jesus Christ.

FORMIDABLE!

"The Korean Church," said Pastor Han at the World Consultation of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. in 1956, "lost 500 pastors in the war, but today 400 Christian chaplains minister in the armed forces of the Republic of Korea. In the theological seminary in Seoul," he added, "500 students are now preparing for the ministry."

"Who supports these 500 students?" queried Pastor Jose Borges of São Paulo, Brazil.

"They are supporting themselves," replied Han simply. "They pay their own way."

After a moment of silence, Borges, with a gesture of astonishment at this testimony from a war-devastated land, exclaimed "Formidable!"

The World Consultation highlighted other formidable developments in the ecumenical mission of the Church.

— The United Church of Christ in Japan replaces eight former denominational groups developed by western missions.

— "The doors are open; everywhere we can preach," affirmed Pastor Borges, speaking of evangelism in supposedly Roman Catholic Brazil.

— Christians in Buddhist Thailand have doubled since World War II. Congregations have increased by 85 per cent; giving by 400 per cent.

— Said a Moslem convert in a Near East land, "There are tens of thousands of secret Christians in my country alone."

— "I am going back with a new vision. I will explain to the Church the idea of togetherness," promised S. K. Roy of India.

— "I carry in my heart a great impression: our unity of spirit," echoed Dr. E. L. Moreno of Mexico.

These Churches to which we are related, in their independence and self-reliance, their spiritual vitality and rapid growth,
their evangelistic fervor and world vision

call on us to venture all our resources along with theirs in fulfilling together our world Christian mission.

"How Shall They Hear..."

Suppose the world's 5,000 finest sermons were recorded for perfect broadcast in our churches. Our preachers still would be indispensable.

For the preacher does not speak to the ears alone. He sets forth the Christian faith in deeds just as surely as in words. Counselor and comforter of his people, student and teacher of the Gospel, leader and servant of his congregation, he preaches the Christian faith by his dedicated life as clearly as with his voice.

Nor does he speak merely to the mind. He must speak also to the heart — by being human and knowing, with human insight, the problems of the human situation, but also by being an instrument of God's love.

If we are to hear, we must have preachers: men who, through example and word, can guide our minds and hearts in the Christian life. The nine seminaries related to our church are training such preachers.

Dr. Robert S. Sandilands, Presbyterian missionary on furlough from Cameroun, will speak here on Wednesday evening at 7:30 P.M.

Dr. Sandilands is the physician and surgeon in charge of Bafia Hospital in a large and populous area in Cameroun, West Africa. He is responsible for the hospital's village clinics where several hundred children receive regular medical care. He also supervises the medical work at Ibong where there is no resident physician. On regular trips to Ibong he sees large numbers of patients, performs necessary operations, and leaves medicines and instructions for the care of the sick.

In addition to medical work Dr. Sandilands carries large responsibilities for the general work of the mission. He is treasurer for his station as well as for his own hospital, supervises the work of masons and carpenters, and has served as chairman of the Mission. He also takes his share of teaching the medical courses in Elat to prepare students for the medical examinations.

When Dr. Sandilands first went to Africa in 1946 he was assigned to Central Hospital in Elat, the largest Presbyterian hospital in Cameroun. He made monthly visits to other stations for consultations and surgery, and also had supervision of four leper colonies in the area.

---O GOD, Thou hast given so much to us, give one thing more - a grateful heart. Amen.

George Herbert

O God, beneath Thy guiding hand,
Our exiled fathers crossed the sea;
And when they trod the wintry strand,
With prayer and psalm they worshipped Thee.

Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God
Came with those exiles o'er the waves;
And, where their pilgrim feet have trod,
The God they trusted guards their graves.

And here Thy Name, O God of love,
Their children's children shall adore,
Till these eternal hills remove,
And spring adorns the earth no more.

Organization of and meeting with the newly organized Christian Ed. Committee, at which time a tentative year's program was set up and recommendations listed for the approval of the Session.

Meeting with the parents of Junior Hi young people before organizing the W.F. Fellowship was an important step planned by Mr. Moser to get parent participation and support for this newly organized group of young people. The initial group are all the children of the parents who turned out. An alert and fine group of young people, they should be the ones who will strengthen and hold the Fellowship together as their number increases.

Open House, or "Sunday School for Parents", was on a Sunday evening (my last) and enjoyed by everyone. Starting with Infant enrollment and the Nursery, the group was divided in two and escorted to each department where they all participated in the learning of songs, some activities and worship. We closed the evening in the Sanctuary with the brief play "John Timothy Stone Jr." I am sure that everyone in the church has become aware of the term "Christian Education", and of the fact that they all have some part in it.

The usual problem of securing teachers and leaders presented a definite barrier to setting up the Junior department as hoped but Team-teaching got off to a good start in the Kindergarten and Primary departments and Rotation teaching with early recruitment to be handled by the Christian Ed. Committee was introduced and emphasized with a plan for special emphasis in March and April. It is hoped that this can be carried through to the point that teacher and leader problems will be greatly diminished.

A necessary part of training is getting in and doing a good bit of the work myself, since it is easier for the new person to see possibilities for improvement in rooms and in situations than for those who are on the job all the time. It is allso easier for the "Outsider" to make suggestions than for those who belong there who have no doubt made the same suggestions and urged the same changes many times. So- setting up a supply room, creating a picture file, "house cleaning", setting up and re-arranging classrooms and furniture, trimming and mounting old pictures, installing interest tables, bringing in bouquets of lovely fall leaves and mosses, shells, rocks et ceters, and painting walls and furniture - all become a part of the job of training. The minister and his wife were on hand at all times to cooperate and help. Many evening they hired a baby sitter so they could give their time in helping. On two "work nites" they did this so they could paint too, actually doing the greatest amount of work themselves. I was amused and interested when one woman who came afternoon and evening to paint, asked me if painting was a part of my job. I had not thought of it in this respect but certainly anything that contributes to a happier spiritual experience in the Christian education of children, youth, adults, and their leaders, is a part of my job. Anyway I like to paint, and clean up old houses and old churches.

My first counseling assignment was a happy one. Working with the Mosers in their church was a pleasure and a privilege. This "Counselor" learned and absorbed much from the minister there who is a real Counselor. It was good to see people with terrific problems calling for and getting help and understanding from the minister in our church. Here in this small and struggling National Missions Church God is using this dedicated young couple to bring His comfort and peace to many in the growing Ketchikan community.

Four very encouraging things have taken place here since November 8- the day of my arrival.

1. The Church School is established in the new classrooms.
2. Team teaching(2 teachers in each department) has been established with 6 new teachers.
3. A class for 3 year old children- their own room and equipment.
4. A new Sup't who superintends only.

Teaching in pairs has been a definite attraction. I have personally recruited 5 of the new teachers and the superintendent. The 6th teacher was listening in to an explanation of team-teaching. She said" I wouldn't mind teaching if I can teach with someone the way you have explained it." "Well", I said, "We need teachers." She is now teaching in the Primary dept with Mrs. Turner, and is one of the best.

The new sup't had refused steadily to be the supt. When approached this time she said she would not mind if she did not have to lead the "opening exercises." When the plan for her work and for the Church School was outlined she was quite willing. She is a person with a good church back-ground, is very efficient, has worked in a large Lutheran church in Kansas, is now a member of our church, and full of plans and ideas. She will do the supervising so greatly needed in the church school.

The three year old children were having a bad time. They were being encouraged to to come to Sunday School but were in with the kindergarten and neither group had any equipment aside from the curriculum books and color books. In our new rooms we have two teachers for each group, and equipment, with more to come. One of the new nursery teachers recently came from California and has used our curriculum with the 3's. We are fortunate to have some interested and able teachers here.

Family night was used to discuss problems in the church of children, youth, adults and their relation to parents. While the children were entertained with movies in the recreation hall, the adults were off in the main building. Divided into six small discussion groups, the responsibilities of adults to these problems was discussed. Everyone entered in and enjoyed their participation in these groups.

The ceremony of lighting the Advent candles was introduced into the opening worship for the Junior and Junior High classes, The Primary and Kindergarten worship in their own departments, also a change in pattern.

Moving in to the new class rooms was the big change and move that has made a tremendous difference in the entire program. The rooms are not finished. They need to be painted and tile flooring laid, plumbing still must be installed but each department is in its own room now whereas formerly two were in the sanctuary, and the three younger groups were in the recreation hall. It was a very discouraging situation for the teachers who were loyal enough to persist. It was decided that they did not have plumbing in the old situations so this could be no excuse for staying out of the new and the painting can be finished between Sundays and so they moved in.

The people with whom I am working are most cooperative and eager to help. Our last general teachers meeting was attended by all the teachers and some elders. Three of the men had been working all night the previous night long-shoring and still they came. There are some wonderfully strong Christians here who are also loyal church members. These are those few who always manage to hold things together in any church group. There are no Advisers for the W.F. group so that my work with them has been to set up a pattern, help with use of the Kit, and demonstrate procedures.

The National Lab. School at Caldwell, Idaho was further training for my work in Alaska and I feel two weeks well spent. Working and studying with the many leaders in our church in the various program areas was a tremendous fellowship experience which brought with it the realization of the enthusiastic effort on the part of our church to help its total membership "grow in grace in in knowlege of Jesus Christ." With attendance at each school and conference, ~~there~~ it is good to meet new leaders and to renew acquaintance with others. It is especially good to hear of their problems, to learn new and tried methods and ideas, and to have the inspiration of this exchange of plans that work or do not work in these many churches, and with the leaders in each.

I returned to Juneau Wednesday the 28th of August. Could not find a room for rent by the month until the following week so stayed in the Hotel Juneau three days and on the "Anna Jackman"three days. I used the office at 214-4th Ave., to unpack some of my books and to prepare for the one day Christian Ed. conference at Sitka on September 7. The details and statistics for the conference will be included in the report fro September but from reports from different individuals indicate it was a real success. Mrs. Latta, Superintendent of Church School, and Rev. Gavin had done the ground-work Teachers, church officers, and some parents were present. It was good to get off to such a good start and to feel the value of and need of ~~xxx~~ a Director's work. An evaluation period brought out the deisre for another conference of this type.

I returned to Juneau from Sitka on the S.J.S.II

ONWARD CHRISTIAN SOLDIERS

Like a mighty army moves the Church of God; Brothers, we are treading where the saints have trod;
We are not divided, All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine, One in charity.

Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before.

Report highlights of work accomplished, indicating progress in program for the year; relate successes, gratifying experiences, special problems or needs; and summarize special meetings and activities. If space is insufficient, use plain paper to complete report.

The All Day Conference at Sitka was a success in that 60 teachers, leaders, parents and church officers attended. Theprogram ran from 3:00 in the afternoon until 9:30 at night. It included an interview type presentation of the subject"Christian Education in Our Church." After that Departmental previews, and later workshops for the childrens and youth leaders. There was a warm response and a spirit of enthusiasm which I am hoping is carrying through. Planning for this conference was done by correspondence while I was still in the States but groundwork and real preparation was done at Sitka by the Sup't and Mr. Gavin, and later Mrs. McClure on her arrival who gave her first week in Sitka to seeing to this conference. We had done considerable planning together, also, when we were at the Lab. school in Idaho.

My new work promises to be worthwhile. The end of a year and evaluating the on-going work in the churches will of course tell the story. So far in the Ketchikan church the subject of Christian Education and all who are involved has been presented to the larger groups attending Family Night, Women's meeting, and morning and evening Sunday services. I have met with all teachers in a general meeting, with teachers by departments, with the session. I believe that in my first two weeks here, the members of the church have become Christian Education "conscious." There is a fine spirit of cooperation on the part of the leaders and teachers and I am able to fit in to their schedules and the regular schedule of the church. A Christian Education Committee has been appointed and we will hope to in my remaining time here, to get a plan set up for the year, some goals established for the next two years, and especially to work out a plan for recruitment and training of leaders.

I am to go to Skagway for November and December, arriving there on November 8. To Craig-Klawock for March and April at which time I will also give a week to training Va. Bible school teachers at Hydaburg. There is a possibility of going out to Edna Bay also to assist the Sunday School teachers there. January and February are still open but some of the men needed to meet with their sessions and leaders first.

1959 summer not worked JK

Thus far seven of our churches have requested teams for Vacation Church schools. I should have this information in by end of October. We are also going to need a couple for the entire summer at Hood Bay Cannery and a single person at Chatham Cannery. We also need to think in terms of Waterfall Cannery once more. We have not had a Vacation school in there for two or three years and there has been some recent expression of need for a school and services there.

Leadership Training for the last three weeks in Skagway included

General Teachers Meeting with Preview of Curriculum for January	1
Planning sessions with teachers Nursery	2
Teaching with teachers	1
Open House or Sunday School for Parents in which the teachers teach the parents

Christmas program and practices with each department and specific groups, plus costuming, planning with teachers and parents, setting up scenery, shopping for same, et cetera, took hours of time during the first three weeks of December.

Setting up classrooms, cleaning out the basement after the carpenter had finished, and following a flooded room, also takes time.

Another room was finished off with the plyboard and other materials which made it possible to put the three year old children in a room of their own. The new rooms in the Skagway church are very small but all five departments are now in their own rooms.

Open House was greatly enjoyed by all who attended. Participating in songs, games and other parts of their children's sessions are real "fun" for the parents and also for the teachers. This is an hour and a half session which concludes in the sanctuary with everyone together. The little play "John Timothey Martin" is most appropriate for the occasion. We did this in Ketchikan and are planning the same for Haines.

The Christmas program was, according to many, the best in years, but certainly poorly attended. Bowling, the other church having it's program the same night and other reasons but all who attended were disappointed for those who were not there. The theme was "Christmas in Many Lands" with costumes to represent children of various countries. They were simple costumes but they required planning and time. The scenery was simple but beautiful and likewise took time and money. One of the women members who is a dedicated Christian gave hours of time to this project. I helped her and enjoyed working with her. My recommendations regarding the Counselor's share in any future Christmas program are included in another report.

Having an apartment to return to in Juneau is a little bit of heaven for me. I hope it will seem the same for any one who will have the opportunity to use it while they stay in Juneau. I was there in time to attend the Christmas Eve Candle light service, and Christmas morning service, and other nice events besides getting myself unpacked and settled. Items that had been stored in the Orme Transfer Company were waiting for me when I arrived.
